STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2010

A N A C T

RELATING TO PUBLIC PROPERTY AND WORKS -- CONTRACTORS' BONDS

Introduced By: Representatives Malik, and Gablinske

Date Introduced: April 06, 2010

Referred To: House Municipal Government

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 37-12-10 of the General Laws in Chapter 37-12 entitled 2 "Contractors' Bonds" is hereby amended to read as follows:

3 37-12-10. Retainers relating to contracts for public works, sewer, or water main
4 construction. -- (a) Upon substantial completion of the work required by a contract aggregating 5 in amount less than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) with any municipality, or any 6 agency or political subdivision thereof, for the construction, reconstruction, alteration,
7 remodeling, repair, or improvement of sewers and water mains, or any public works project 8 defined in section 37-13-1, the awarding authority may deduct from its payment a retention to 9 secure satisfactory performance of the contractual work not exceeding five percent (5%) of the 10 contract price unless otherwise agreed to by the parties. Upon substantial completion of the work 11 required by a contract aggregating in an amount of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) or 12 greater with any municipality, or any agency or political subdivision thereof, for the construction, 13 reconstruction, alteration, remodeling, repair, or improvement of sewers and water mains, or any 14 public works project defined in section 37-13-1, the awarding authority may deduct from its 15 payment a retention to secure satisfactory performance of the contractual work not exceeding five 16 percent (5%) of the contract price. In the case of periodic payments with respect to contracts less 17 than the aggregate amount of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), the awarding authority 18 may deduct from its payment a retention to secure satisfactory performance of the contractual 19 work not exceeding five percent (5%) of the approved amount of any periodic payment unless

1 otherwise agreed to by the parties. In the case of periodic payments with respect to contracts in 2 the aggregate amount of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) or greater, the awarding 3 authority may deduct from its payment a retention to secure satisfactory performance of the 4 contractual work not exceeding five percent (5%) of the approved amount of any periodic 5 payment.

6 (b) The retainage shall be paid to any contractor or subcontractor within ninety (90) days 7 of the date the work is accepted by the awarding authority unless a dispute exists with respect to 8 the work. If payment is not made within ninety (90) days for any reason other than a dispute, 9 which, if resolved and it is not the fault of the contractor, interest shall be assessed at the rate of 10 ten percent (10%) per annum on all money which is to be paid to the contractor or subcontractor.

11 (c) The retainage shall be paid to any contractor or subcontractor within ninety (90) days
12 of the date his or her work is completed and accepted by the awarding authority. If payment is not 13 made, interest shall be assessed at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum.

14 (d) There shall also be deducted and retained from the contract price an additional sum 15 sufficient to pay the estimated cost of municipal police traffic control on any public works 16 project. Municipalities shall directly pay the officers working traffic details and shall bill and be 17 reimbursed by the withholding authority for which the contract is being performed every thirty 18 (30) days until the project is complete.

19 (e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to projects located within the town of 20 Warren, the withholding authority shall hold an amount from the contract price which shall be 21 reasonably sufficient to pay the estimated cost of municipal police traffic control. The 22 withholding authority shall pay to the town of Warren within seventy-two (72) hours of written 23 demand the actual costs of police traffic control associated with said project on an ongoing basis.

24 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
