1           WHEREAS, As a youngster growing up in Johnston, Daniel Centofanti loved listening to 2 his radio during the day. This inspired him to write a letter to longtime WPRO host Salty Brine
3 asking for a tour of the station. To his surprise, he received a phone call from Salty Brine offering 4 to give him a tour, an offer Daniel and his father gladly accepted. Thus began Daniel "Giovanni"
5 Centofanti's love affair with all things radio and the inspiration for a career that has gone down in 6 the annals of Rhode Island radio as one of the greatest in the State's history; and

7           WHEREAS, Daniel Centofanti began his radio career at 92 PRO-FM right out of high
8 school in 1974 as a teenage intern. He remembers the first song he ever played for his listeners
9 was "My Maria" by B.W. Stevenson. He gradually worked his way up the ladder playing top 40
10 hits and entertaining his audience with his humorous, easy-going and fun style. Mr. Centofanti 11 has a gift for making a connection with his listeners and they have rewarded him with their 12 loyalty and affection for the past fifty years; and

14 rated "Giovanni in the Morning" show for the past 25 years, Daniel Centofanti took great 15 pleasure through the years of showcasing new artists and new hit songs to his audience. His loyal 16 followers trusted his judgement and shared his good taste in music. If "Giovanni" said that a song 17 was going to be a hit, it was going to be a hit, and if Giovanni said that a rising artist was going to 18 take the world by storm, rest assured it was going to happen; and

19           WHEREAS, In an industry that is known for its high turnover rate, Mr. Centofanti has

1 endured in large part to his upbeat voice and engaging personality, always cheerfully welcoming
2 his faithful listeners to another day. As he thinks about his legacy of fifty years in Providence
3 radio, Mr. Centofanti has reflected on the fact that three generations of families have listened to 4 him, from grandparents to their children to their grandchildren. It's a legacy that was honored and 5 celebrated when he was inducted into the Rhode Island Radio Hall of Fame in 2009; now,
6 therefore be it
