STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2011

SENATE RESOLUTION

COMMEMORATING THE CELEBRATION OF THE BIRTH OF THE REVEREND DR.
MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

Introduced By: Senator Harold M. Metts

Date Introduced: January 18, 2011

Referred To: Recommended for Immediate Consideration

1 WHEREAS, On January 15, 1929, a child was born in Atlanta, Georgia, who would one 2 day lead a nonviolent revolution that would forever change the social and political landscape of 3 America; and

4 WHEREAS, The mirror that the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. held before the 5 national conscience revealed the ugliness of racism and hatred that had divided America from the 6 day it was born. Neither the carnage of civil war, nor even the thorough self-examination that Dr.
7 King forced upon the nation, has entirely eradicated the injustices which still plague this nation.
8 However, where would the social conscience of America be today were it not for the courage and 9 teachings of this great man?; and

10 WHEREAS, There can be no doubt that Dr. King burned with the fire of revolution.
11 Where others called for blood and violence to purify the nation, he preached nonviolence. His 12 ironclad will knew that the justness of his cause would one day unite America. In his famed "I 13 Have a Dream" speech before the Lincoln Memorial, he challenged the country to live up to its 14 ideals; and

15 WHEREAS, For Dr. King, violence was a firestorm which must eventually consume the 16 arsonist. Although the victim of violence throughout his public career, he never gave in to the 17 darkness cloaking this great evil. Dr. King believed that violence did not change hearts. He 18 believed that racial equality and social justice were more likely to come about through appeals to 19 the public's collective conscience and by the examples being set by those advocating social

1 justice and non-violence; now, therefore be it

2 RESOLVED, That this Senate of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations
3 hereby commemorates the birthday of the great Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. We honor 4 not only the man and his accomplishments, but the continuing process of social enlightenment he 5 founded which lives with us still, ever pressing us to move beyond what we are and what we 6 think we can be. A prophet of hope, Dr. King left a legacy which will live forever; and be it 7 further

8 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and he hereby is authorized and directed to 9 transmit duly certified copies of this resolution to all general office holders, members of the 10 Rhode Island Congressional Delegation, and the Martin Luther King, Jr. State Holiday
11 Commission.
