

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2023

SENATE RESOLUTION

COMMEMORATING "INTERNATIONAL HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE DAY" ON JANUARY 27, 2023

Introduced By: Senator Meghan E. Kallman

Date Introduced: January 31, 2023

Referred To: Recommended for Immediate Consideration

1 WHEREAS, The Holocaust, also known as the Shoah, is the term used to refer to the 2 period in world history from 1933 to 1945, before and during World War II, when Adolf Hitler
3 and the Nazis systematically and barbarically persecuted and murdered nearly six million Jews
4 and another five million non-Jews throughout Europe because they were perceived to be "racially 5 inferior" and "life unworthy of life"; and

6 WHEREAS, On January 27, 1945, the Soviet army entered Auschwitz and liberated more 7 than 7,000 remaining prisoners, who were mostly ill and dying. Shortly thereafter, other Allied 8 forces liberated the remaining concentration camps, freeing thousands of additional suffering and 9 starving prisoners. By the time these liberations occurred, roughly two-thirds of Europe's Jewish 10 population had been systematically and heinously murdered; and

11 WHEREAS, In 2005, the United Nations General Assembly adopted a resolution
12 designating January 27th as International Holocaust Remembrance Day to mark the anniversary 13 of the liberation of Auschwitz-Birkenau and to honor the six million Jewish victims of the 14 Holocaust and millions of other victims of Nazism; and

15 WHEREAS, This year marks the 78th year anniversary of the end of the infamous and 16 brutal killing grounds of Auschwitz, Buchenwald, Dachau and Belson but across our nation, anti-17 Semitic hate crimes continue and are rising with messages and incidents of racial, ethnic, and 18 social intolerance leading to senseless acts of violence that continue to terrorize and marginalize 19 the more than 18,750 members of the Jewish faith living in Rhode Island; and

1 WHEREAS, Anti-Semitic malevolent attacks are an assault on the humanity of all the 2 people in our State. In the words of famed writer Elie Wiesel, "There may be times when we are 3 powerless to prevent injustice, but there must never be a time when we fail to protest." Rhode 4 Islanders and people of all nations must take the time to remember the millions of men, women 5 and children who were slaughtered simply because of their beliefs and their heritage, or their 6 strengths or their frailties, and we must firmly avow that the atrocities of the Holocaust will never 7 be repeated; now, therefore be it

8 RESOLVED, That this Senate of the State of Rhode Island hereby commemorates
9 "International Holocaust Remembrance Day" on January 27, 2023. We call upon our fellow 10 citizens to join us in remembering and honoring the amazing courage and the enormous sacrifices 11 of all those killed during the Holocaust. We moreover reaffirm our pledge to work to eradicate 12 bigotry, prejudice, brutality and injustice through education and vigilance and we stand united in 13 rejecting and condemning vile and intolerable acts of anti-Semitism and hatred. In the words of 14 Harvard philosophy professor George Santayana, "Those who cannot remember the past are 15 condemned to repeat it"; and be it further

16 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to 17 transmit duly certified copies of this resolution to the United States Holocaust Museum, the 18 Rhode Island Holocaust Museum, the Jewish Alliance of Greater Rhode Island, the Jewish 19 Community Center of Rhode Island, and the Rhode Island Israel Collaborative.
