9 Rhode Island or its political subdivisions;

10 (2) Interest or dividend income on obligations or securities of any authority, commission,

16 the tuition savings program pursuant to § 16-57-6.1. For purposes of this section, a nonqualified 17 withdrawal is:

6 (III) Not made in other circumstances for which an exclusion from tax made applicable by 7 Section 529 of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. § 529, pertains if the transfer, rollover, 8 withdrawal, or distribution is made within two (2) taxable years following the taxable year for 9 which a contributions modification pursuant to subsection (c)(4) of this section is taken based on 10 contributions to any tuition savings program account by the person who is the participant of the 11 account at the time of the contribution, whether or not the person is the participant of the account 12 at the time of the transfer, rollover, withdrawal or distribution;

13 (ii) In the event of a nonqualified withdrawal under subsection (b)(4)(i)(A) or (b)(4)(i)(B) 14 of this section, there shall be added to the federal adjusted gross income of that person for the 15 taxable year of the withdrawal an amount equal to the lesser of:

16 (A) The amount equal to the nonqualified withdrawal reduced by the sum of any 17 administrative fee or penalty imposed under the tuition savings program in connection with the 18 nonqualified withdrawal plus the earnings portion thereof, if any, includible in computing the 19 person's federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year; and

20 (B) The amount of the person's contribution modification pursuant to subsection (c)(4) of 21 this section for the person's taxable year of the withdrawal and the two (2) prior taxable years less 22 the amount of any nonqualified withdrawal for the two (2) prior taxable years included in 23 computing the person's Rhode Island income by application of this subsection for those years. Any 24 amount added to federal adjusted gross income pursuant to this subdivision shall constitute Rhode 25 Island income for residents, nonresidents and part-year residents;

26 (5) The modification described in § 44-30-25.1(d)(3)(i);

27 (6) The amount equal to any unemployment compensation received but not included in 28 federal adjusted gross income; and

29 (7) The amount equal to the deduction allowed for sales tax paid for a purchase of a 30 qualified motor vehicle as defined by the Internal Revenue Code § 164(a)(6).

31 (c) Modifications reducing federal adjusted gross income. There shall be subtracted from 32 federal adjusted gross income:

33 (1) Any interest income on obligations of the United States and its possessions to the extent 34 includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes, and any interest or dividend income on

1 obligations, or securities of any authority, commission, or instrumentality of the United States to 2 the extent includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes but exempt from state income
3 taxes under the laws of the United States; provided, that the amount to be subtracted shall in any 4 case be reduced by any interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry 5 obligations or securities the income of which is exempt from Rhode Island personal income tax, to 6 the extent the interest has been deducted in determining federal adjusted gross income or taxable 7 income;

8 (2) A modification described in § 44-30-25(f) or § 44-30-1.1(c)(1);

9 (3) The amount of any withdrawal or distribution from the "tuition savings program"
10 referred to in § 16-57-6.1 that is included in federal adjusted gross income, other than a withdrawal 11 or distribution or portion of a withdrawal or distribution that is a nonqualified withdrawal;

12 (4) Contributions made to an account under the tuition savings program, including the 13 "contributions carryover" pursuant to subsection (c)(4)(iv) of this section, if any, subject to the 14 following limitations, restrictions and qualifications:

15 (i) The aggregate subtraction pursuant to this subdivision for any taxable year of the 16 taxpayer shall not exceed five hundred dollars ($500) or one thousand dollars ($1,000) if a joint 17 return;

18 (ii) The following shall not be considered contributions:

19 (A) Contributions made by any person to an account who is not a participant of the account 20 at the time the contribution is made;

25 (iii) The subtraction pursuant to this subdivision shall not reduce the taxpayer's federal 26 adjusted gross income to less than zero (0);

27 (iv) The contributions carryover to a taxable year for purpose of this subdivision is the 28 excess, if any, of the total amount of contributions actually made by the taxpayer to the tuition 29 savings program for all preceding taxable years for which this subsection is effective over the sum 30 of:

31 (A) The total of the subtractions under this subdivision allowable to the taxpayer for all 32 such preceding taxable years; and

33 (B) That part of any remaining contribution carryover at the end of the taxable year which 34 exceeds the amount of any nonqualified withdrawals during the year and the prior two (2) taxable

1 years not included in the addition provided for in this subdivision for those years. Any such part 2 shall be disregarded in computing the contributions carryover for any subsequent taxable year;

3 (v) For any taxable year for which a contributions carryover is applicable, the taxpayer
4 shall include a computation of the carryover with the taxpayer's Rhode Island personal income tax
5 return for that year, and if for any taxable year on which the carryover is based the taxpayer filed a
6 joint Rhode Island personal income tax return but filed a return on a basis other than jointly for a 7 subsequent taxable year, the computation shall reflect how the carryover is being allocated between 8 the prior joint filers;

9 (5) The modification described in § 44-30-25.1(d)(1);

10 (6) Amounts deemed taxable income to the taxpayer due to payment or provision of
