STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2013

A N A C T

RELATING TO BUSINESSES AND PROFESSIONS - VETERINARY PRACTICE

Introduced By: Senators Sosnowski, Sheehan, Walaska, Kettle, and Goldin

Date Introduced: February 28, 2013

Referred To: Senate Environment & Agriculture

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 5-25-11 of the General Laws in Chapter 5-25 entitled "Veterinary
2 Practice" is hereby amended to read as follows:

3 5-25-11. Licensing of veterinarians. -- (a) By Examination. - The applicant is required
4 to pass, with a grade determined by the division, an examination approved by the division; upon
5 payment of an examination fee as set forth in section 23-1-54 every candidate who passes that 6 examination, and in the opinion of the division meets the qualifications of section 5-25-10, shall,
7 upon payment of an initial license fee, which shall be equal to the biennial license renewal fee in 8 effect, be issued a license to practice veterinary medicine. Veterinarians licensed under the 9 provisions of this chapter on August 31, 1985 shall continue to be licensed.

10 (b) Without Examination by Endorsement. - A license to practice veterinary medicine
11 may be issued without examination to an applicant who has been duly licensed by examination as 12 a veterinarian under the laws of another state or territory or District of Columbia, if, in the 13 opinion of the division, the applicant meets the qualifications required of veterinarians in this 14 state, as further defined in rules and regulations.

15 (c) Emergency or natural disaster. A veterinarian who is properly and currently licensed
16 or credentialed in another state may practice, without written examination or other qualification, 17 in the state of Rhode Island during an emergency or natural disaster as determined by the Rhode 18 Island state veterinarian or the director of the division of agriculture. Said veterinarian shall 19 provide only those services that are at the direction of the Rhode Island state veterinarian or the

1 chief of the division of agriculture and are directly related to a response to an emergency or 2 natural disaster and only until the services of the veterinarian are no longer required as
3 determined by the Rhode Island state veterinarian or the chief of the division of agriculture.

4 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
