STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2022

A N A C T

RELATING TO ELECTIONS -- NOMINATION OF PARTY AND INDEPENDENT
CANDIDATES

Introduced By: Senators Archambault, Burke, Ruggerio, and Coyne

Date Introduced: January 25, 2022

Referred To: Senate Judiciary

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Sections 17-14-8, 17-14-10 and 17-14-11 of the General Laws in Chapter 17-
2 14 entitled "Nomination of Party and Independent Candidates" are hereby amended to read as
3 follows:

4 17-14-8. Signing of nomination papers.

5 Not all endorsers of a candidate need sign on the same nomination papers, but endorsers
6 who are voters in different cities and towns shall not sign the same sheet. Every voter signing a
7 nomination paper shall sign ~~in-person~~ with his or her name, place of residence, and street number,
8 as it appears on the voting list. In addition to in-person signature collection, nomination papers may 9 also be transmitted to the voter by the candidate for their endorsement signature, by mail or 10 electronic transmission. Electronic transmission includes email or facsimile. If the exact copied
11 image of the nomination paper is transmitted electronically, both the front and the back must be 12 transmitted to the voter and then returned by the voter to the candidate. Endorsers may download
13 and print a hard copy of the nomination papers and sign it by hand and write the voter's address on 14 the spaces provided. Endorsers may deliver signed nomination papers to the candidate in-person,
15 by mail or electronic transmission, with a scanned copy or photograph of the nomination paper,
16 sent by email or facsimile. Voters may also return the nomination paper directly to the local board
17 of canvassers by hand, mail, electronic transmission, or by depositing the nomination paper in a
18 designated drop box. Thereafter and prior to submission to the local board of canvassers, the

1 respective candidates must reproduce the two (2) pages of the signed nomination paper to a single,
2 double-sided sheet of paper and submit each such nomination paper sheet to the local board of
3 canvassers in a double-sided, hard copy paper format. Single-sided sheets or two (2) sheets stapled
4 or otherwise attached together are not acceptable. Nomination papers originally printed by the 5 secretary of state or local boards of canvassers may be reduced to a letter-sized document, so long
6 as the document is the exact copied image of the state or locally issued nomination paper and is
7 printed double-sided. The signature shall be accepted as valid if it can be reasonably identified to
8 be the signature of the voter it purports to be. A variation of the voter's signature by the insertion
9 or omission of identifying titles or by the substitution of initials for the first or middle names, or 10 both, shall not in itself be grounds for invalidation of the signature. Any voter who is unable to 11 write may sign by making his or her mark "X" on the nomination paper in the presence of two (2)
12 witnesses who shall subscribe their names on the paper as witnesses to the signing.

13 17-14-10. Affidavit of person obtaining signatures.

14 Every person who obtains signatures of voters upon nomination papers shall under oath
15 sign the following statement:

16 "I, _____, ~~of _____,~~ of the city/town of _____ 17 ~~under oath, make affidavit and say~~ the pains and penalties of perjury, attest that the signers of the 18 within nomination paper (or papers) did so sign the paper (or papers) in my presence or 19 electronically transmitted the nomination(s) papers to me.

20 _____

21 ~~State of Rhode Island~~

22 _____, ~~Se.~~

23 ~~Subscribed and sworn to before me this _____ day of _____, A.D.~~

24 ~~20_____.~~

25 _____

26 ~~Notary Public"~~

27 17-14-11. Checking and certification of nomination papers -- Challenge.

28 Each nomination paper for party and independent candidates shall be submitted before four 29 o'clock (4:00) p.m. on the sixtieth (60th) day before the primary to the local board of the city or 30 town where the signers appear to be voters or, in the case of special elections, on the twenty-eighth
31 (28th) day before the primary. All nomination papers must be submitted, in-person, by mail, or 32 electronically, including by email or facsimile, to the local board of canvassers, by four o'clock
33 (4:00) p.m. on the due date. In the event that the candidate returns the nomination papers
34 electronically, the candidate must submit the nominations to the email address or fax number, set

1 forth on the local board of canvassers website. Nomination papers for independent presidential
2 candidates and presidential candidates of political parties, other than those defined in § 17-1-2(9),
3 shall be filed not later than sixty (60) days prior to the general election. Each local board shall
4 immediately proceed to check signatures on each nomination paper filed with it against the voting
5 list as last canvassed or published according to law. The local boards shall certify a sufficient
6 number of names appearing on the nomination papers that are in conformity with the requirements
7 of § 17-14-8 to qualify the candidate for a position on the ballot, and after considering any challenge
8 under this section and, if necessary, certifying any additional valid names, shall immediately file
9 nomination papers for statewide office, general assembly, and state and district committee
10 candidates with the secretary of state; provided, that nomination papers for local candidates shall 11 be retained by the local board. If any candidate or the chairperson of any party committee questions
12 the validity or authenticity of any signature on the nomination paper, the local board shall
13 immediately and summarily decide the question, and for this purpose, shall have the same powers
14 as are conferred upon the board by the provisions of § 17-14-14. If any challenged signature is 15 found to be invalid, for any reason in law, or forged, then the signature shall not be counted.

16 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.

EXPLANATION
BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL
OF

RELATING TO ELECTIONS -- NOMINATION OF PARTY AND INDEPENDENT
CANDIDATES

1 This act would allow voters to endorse the nomination of candidacy documents by mail,
2 email, or facsimile and deliver them to the candidate or board of canvassers in-person, via mail,
3 email or facsimile. It would modify the affidavit language of persons obtaining nomination
4 signatures, to include an attestation concerning the actual electronic collection of signatures.
5 Finally, it would allow nomination papers to be delivered by candidates to board of canvassers in-
6 person, mail, email or facsimile, by the deadline.

7 This act would take effect upon passage.
