Introduced By: Senators Sosnowski, P Fogarty, Ruggerio, Walaska, and McCaffrey

Date Introduced: March 01, 2012

Referred To: Senate Environment & Agriculture

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 5-25-11 of the General Laws in Chapter 5-25 entitled "Veterinary 2 Practice" is hereby amended to read as follows:

3 5-25-11. Licensing of veterinarians. -- (a) By Examination. - The applicant is required
4 to pass, with a grade determined by the division, an examination approved by the division; upon 5 payment of an examination fee of three hundred and thirty dollars ($330) every candidate who 6 passes that examination, and in the opinion of the division meets the qualifications of section 5-7 25-10, shall, upon payment of an initial license fee, which shall be equal to the biennial license
8 renewal fee in effect, be issued a license to practice veterinary medicine. Veterinarians licensed 9 under the provisions of this chapter on August 31, 1985 shall continue to be licensed.

10 (b) Without Examination by Endorsement. - A license to practice veterinary medicine 11 may be issued without examination to an applicant who has been duly licensed by examination as 12 a veterinarian under the laws of another state or territory or District of Columbia, if, in the 13 opinion of the division, the applicant meets the qualifications required of veterinarians in this 14 state, as further defined in rules and regulations.

15 (c) Exemption at discretion of Governor. A veterinarian who is properly and currently 16 licensed or credentialed in another state may practice, without written examination or other 17 qualification, in the state of Rhode Island during an emergency or natural disaster, in a capacity 18 that is in direct response to said emergency or natural disaster and in a manner that is directed by 19 the Rhode Island state veterinarian, or other animal health official with authority delegated by the

1 Rhode Island state veterinarian, and until the services of said veterinarian are no longer required
2 within the state as determined by the Rhode Island state veterinarian or other animal health
3 official with authority delegated by the Rhode Island state veterinarian; provided that:

4 (1) An official declaration of the disaster or emergency, as defined in subdivision 30-15-3 5 (1), has been declared by the governor or other authorized state official; or

6 (2) An invitation has been extended to the veterinarian by the governor or another 7 authorized state official or an animal health official with authority delegated by an authorized 8 state official. Such entities shall include the director of the department of environmental 9 management the director of health and the chief of the division of agriculture or the state 10 veterinarian.
