IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2022

SENATE RESOLUTION

EXPRESSING DEEPEST CONDOLENCES ON THE PASSING OF THE HONORABLE HENRY JOSEPH NARDONE, SR.

Introduced By: Senator Dennis L. Algieri

Date Introduced: March 22, 2022

Referred To: Recommended for Immediate Consideration

1 WHEREAS, It is with deep sadness that this Senate has learned of the passing of Henry
2 Joseph Nardone, Sr., the devoted husband for seventy years to the late Mary Frances Nardone; 3 and

4 WHEREAS, Mr. Nardone was a graduate of the Immaculate Conception School and 5 Westerly High School. He attended the University of Rhode Island, then proceeded to join the 6 United States Navy. He completed Naval Studies at Yale University, earned his Bachelor of 7 Science degree in Mechanical Engineering from URI, and completed Midshipman's School at 8 Columbia University. He was a United States Navy Veteran of World War II, who served our 9 nation with honor and distinction and earned the rank of Lieutenant; and

10 WHEREAS, After World War II, Mr. Nardone served as head of the Physics Department 11 at the Naval Preparatory School in Annapolis. He later moved to Boston with his wife, and 12 attended the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, earning an advanced professional degree in 13 Naval Engineering. He subsequently moved back to Westerly and began his distinguished 37 year 14 career with Electric Boat, where he served in numerous important positions, including as the 15 Project Officer of the Nautilus, the first nuclear powered submarine, and as the Manager of the 16 Quonset Point Facility; and

17 WHEREAS, Mr. Nardone was very active in civic and community affairs throughout his 18 life. He served as a member of the Westerly School Committee for 17 years, serving as Vice 19 Chairman and later as Chairman. In 1972, he was appointed to the Rhode Island State Board of

1 Regents for Education and remained a member of that committee when it was renamed the Rhode 2 Island Board of Governors for Education, retiring as the Board's Vice Chairman; and

3 WHEREAS, Mr. Nardone's lengthy charitable endeavors include his long association 4 with Westerly Hospital, where he served on the Board of Trustees for more than thirty years and 5 had the Henry J. Nardone Community Center named in his honor. He also served on the Boards
6 of the Westerly Pawcatuck YMCA, the Chamber of Commerce, the American Red Cross, and 7 was a member of the Dante Society. He maintained a lifetime association with URI, serving as a 8 member of the Engineering Advisory Council, the URI Foundation, and endowed the Henry J.
9 Nardone Family Scholarship in Mechanical Engineering. He was awarded an honorary Doctorate 10 of Laws from URI and an honorary Doctorate of Public Service from Rhode Island College; and

11 WHEREAS, Mr. Nardone was a man of deep faith. He helped to establish the CCD
12 program at the Immaculate Conception Parish and he and his wife were both awarded the St.
13 Edmund's Medal of Honor for living lives of virtue in the spirit of St. Edmund; and

14 WHEREAS, Mr. Nardone leaves behind his children, Henry Nardone, Jr., and his wife, 15 Barbara, Michael Nardone, William Nardone, Esq., and his wife, Diane, Robert Nardone and his 16 wife, Patricia, and Andrea Frances Nardone, along with his eleven grandchildren, Henry 17 Nardone, III, and his wife, Linda, Jennifer McDonald and her husband, Brian, Zenia Morrone and
