5 SECTION 2. Chapter 11-13 of the General Laws entitled "Explosives and Fireworks" is 6 hereby amended by adding thereto the following section:

7 11-13-10. Definitions.

8 For purposes of this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

9 (1) "Destructive or incendiary device or substance" means an explosive, article or device
10 designed or adapted to cause physical harm to persons or property by means of fire, explosion,
11 deflagration or detonation and consisting of any substance capable of being ignited, whether or 12 not contrived to ignite or explode automatically.

13 (2) "Explosive" means any chemical compound, mechanical mixture, or device that 14 contains any oxidizing and combustible units, or other ingredients, in such proportions, quantities,
15 or packing that ignition by fire, by friction, by concussion, by percussion, or by detonation of the 16 compound, mixture, or device or any part thereof may cause an explosion; any chemical 17 compound, mixture, or device, the primary or common purpose of which is to function by 18 explosion; the term includes, but is not limited to high and low explosives, black powder,
19 smokeless powder, pellet powder, initiating explosives, detonators, safety fuses, squibs,
20 detonating cord, igniter cord, igniters; and other materials which are classified as Division 1.1,
21 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5 or 1.6 explosives by the United States Department of Transportation or listed
22 pursuant to 18 USC § 841 or 27 CFR 555.23. "Explosive" shall not include a pyrotechnic, small
23 arms ammunition, small arms ammunition primers, smokeless powder and black powders
24 possessed in quantities allowable by law pursuant to § 23-28.28-5 unless possessed or used for an 25 illegal purpose.

26 (3) "Hoax explosive", "hoax destructive or incendiary device or substance" or "hoax
27 chemical, biological or nuclear weapon" means any device, article or substance that would cause
28 a person to reasonably believe that such device, article or substance is: (i) An explosive; (ii) A
29 destructive or incendiary device or substance; or (iii) A chemical, biological or nuclear weapon,
30 harmful radioactive substance or poison capable of causing bodily injury which is actually an 31 inoperable facsimile.

32 (4) "Oxidizer" means a substance that yields oxygen readily to stimulate the combustion
33 of organic matter or other fuel.

34 (5) "Places" means to set or put in a particular space.

1 (6) "Pyrotechnic" means any commercially manufactured combustible or explosive
2 composition or manufactured article designed and prepared for the purpose of producing an
3 audible effect or a visible display including, but not limited to: (i) Fireworks, firecrackers; (ii)
4 Flares, fuses and torpedoes, so-called, and similar signaling devices.

5 (7) "Readily converted" means any combination of components that have been brought
6 together in a manner for assembly that is designed or adapted to cause physical harm to persons
7 or property by means of fire, explosion, deflagration or detonation but are not yet in a completed
8 stage. Elements to determine whether an item is "readily converted" include, but are not limited
9 to: (1) Time required to convert the components; (2) Ease of conversion; (3) Expertise needed;
10 (4) Necessary equipment; (5) Availability of parts and the ease in which they can be obtained; (6)
11 Expense; (7) Scope to which the item(s) have already been modified; and (8) Feasibility.

12 (8) "Small arms ammunition" means any shotgun, rifle, pistol, or revolver cartridge, and 13 cartridges for propellant-actuated power devices and industrial guns.

14 SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage.

EXPLANATION
BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

RELATING TO CRIMINAL OFFENSES -- EXPLOSIVES AND FIREWORKS

1 This act would make it illegal to possess, place, or threaten to place, without lawful
2 authority, a bomb, or other explosive device, or any destructive or incendiary device or substance
3 and/or any substance or combination of materials that are readily convertible to a bomb,
4 explosive device, or any destructive or incendiary device or substance and would create criminal
5 violations for such violations.

6 This act would take effect upon passage.
