Referred To: Placed on the Senate Consent Calendar

1 WHEREAS, Samuel Chionuma was one of Rhode Island and our Nation's best,
2 dedicating his life to service and at the age of thirty-seven, was taken from us far too soon in a 3 senseless act of violence; and

4 WHEREAS, Samuel Chionuma served our Nation courageously and honorably in the 5 United States Army, and upon completion of two tours of duty as an infantryman in combat in 6 Iraq, he was awarded multiple commendations, medals, and honors. He served a total of 13 years
7 in the military, rising to the rank of Captain; and

8 WHEREAS, Playing a key role in Rhode Island's response to COVID, Samuel 9 Chionuma ensured that tests were widely distributed, thus enabling the State to better combat the 10 pandemic. He continued to serve Rhode Island as a Senior Consultant and Operations Manager 11 for the Rhode Island Department of Human Services; and

12 WHEREAS, Truly a special person, Samuel Chionuma filled his years with acts of 13 courage in service to Rhode Island and his country, with love and devotion to his parents, 14 siblings, cousins, and nephew, and with unparalleled generosity and friendship to the people he 15 encountered from all walks of life; now, therefore be it

16 RESOLVED, That this Senate of the State of Rhode Island hereby recognizes and 17 celebrates the life and service of Samuel Chionuma to Rhode Island and the United States; and be 18 it further
