SENATE RESOLUTION

WELCOMING THE NARRAGANSETT COUNCIL, BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA, TO THE RHODE ISLAND STATE HOUSE AND JOYFULLY CELEBRATING SCOUTING MONTH
IN FEBRUARY

Introduced By: Senator Jonathon Acosta

Date Introduced: May 16, 2024

Referred To: Recommended for Immediate Consideration

1           WHEREAS, The Narragansett Council BSA, like the Boy Scouts of America (BSA), was 2 founded in 1910, is one of the largest scouting and youth development organizations in the 3 region, with thousands of youth participants. Since the BSA's beginning, approximately 130
4 million Americans have participated in its programs nationwide, to the great benefit of our nation.
5 Through the years, countless youngsters have developed leadership skills and character, learned 6 how to be self-sufficient, as well as life-saving and career enhancing skills and have selflessly 7 served their local communities and made positive differences in the lives of countless people. In 8 celebration of Scouting month, a group of Narragansett Council Scouts and leaders are visiting 9 the Rhode Island State House today; and

10           WHEREAS, The Narragansett Council serves the entire State of Rhode Island along with 11 cities and towns in neighboring states, and tirelessly endeavors to be accessible to all Rhode 12 Islanders, regardless of their income or social status. In particular, they work to include 13 disadvantaged families within our State's urban communities. In 2023, 1,398 new Scouts and 14 their families joined programs offered by the Narragansett Council; and

15           WHEREAS, The Narragansett Council makes a positive impact in the lives of countless 16 people within every single Rhode Island community. In 2023, 5,355 Scouts and their leaders 17 donated 25,197 community service hours, and 150,652 pounds of food were collected through 18 "Scouting For Food" and given to local food pantries; and

19           WHEREAS, Camping and environmental education have always been vital and integral

1 parts of the scouting experience. In 2023, at the nationally renowned Camp Yawgoog, run by the 2 Narragansett Council, there were 4,565 campers, with 133,072 meals served and 15,443 merit
3 badges earned. There were 239 boy troops and 54 girl troops attending Camp Yawgoog last year;
4 and

5 WHEREAS, The Narragansett Council also operates the highly successful Adventure 6 Base Camp at Camp Champlin in Cranston; and

7 WHEREAS, Camp Champlin’s year-round “Adventure Base Camp” delivers the youth
8 development, life skills, and leadership development programs of Scouting not just to thousands 9 of Scouts every year, but to all Rhode Island youth and families, focusing on unique outdoor 10 adventure program experiences; and

11 WHEREAS The Scouts are proposing a new, state-of-the-art “Leadership and Program 12 Center” at Camp Champlin that will serve youth and families statewide, positioning the Scouts to 13 augment the existing outdoor programs with an additional programs and training facility to 14 expand offerings year-round, especially during inclement weather; and

15 WHEREAS, The new, modern facility will feature large meeting space for up to 250 16 people, a “Wet Lab” for STEM and environmental science programming, a video & tech lab as 17 well as the new headquarters for Narragansett Council for which the Scouts are seeking federal 18 funding to make improvements to water, sewer, and roads; and

19 WHEREAS, Throughout the year, the Narragansett Council offers many enriching, 20 rewarding and educational programs including Fire Explorer’s Academy, Law Enforcement 21 Explorer Academy, and Police Explorer Stations Day. All of these programs offer young people 22 the opportunity to participate in practical hands-on activities that explore possible career choices;
23 and

24 WHEREAS, Each year, the Narragansett Council also offers training classes on a variety
25 of important topics including Youth Protection Training, Leave No Trace & Outdoor Ethics 26 Classes, National Youth Leadership Training, and Introduction to Leadership Skills; and

27 WHEREAS, Since girls were officially welcomed into the Boy Scouts of America in 28 2019, the Narragansett Council has enrolled 799 girls in Scouting as of December of 2023; and

29 WHEREAS, The Narragansett Council's more than 5,300 youth, and their families, 30 highly value the positive experiences and enriching educational opportunities the Narragansett
31 Council provides for them as they help to prepare their children to lead successful and rewarding
32 lives and to make a positive impact within their communities; now, therefore be it

33 RESOLVED, That this Senate of the State of Rhode Island hereby welcomes the 34 Narragansett Council, Scouts BSA to the Rhode Island State House, joyfully celebrates Scouting

1 month during the month of February and thanks the Scouts and their adult volunteer leaders for 2 all the good they do on a daily basis in the State of Rhode Island; and be it further 3       RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to 4 transmit a duly certified copy of this resolution to Mr. Tim McCandless, Scout Executive and 5 CEO of the Narragansett Council BSA.
