2 counsel of the intended parent's choice who is licensed to practice te 3 and who advises the intended parent regarding the terms of the gestational carrier 4 agreement. 5 Additionally, at least one intended parent must be a United States citizen or a legal 6 resident of the United States. 7 Section 4. That a NEW SECTION be added to title 25: 8 A gestational carrier agreement is not valid unless: 9 At least one party is a resident of this state or the birth is planned to occur in this (1)10 state; 11 (2) The gestational carrier and intended parent meet the requirements of this chapter; 12 (3) The agreement is: 13 In writing; (a) 14 Executed prior to the commencement of any medical procedures related to (b) the surrogacy arrangement, other than medical or mental health 15 evaluations necessary to determine eligibility of the parties under sections 16 17 2 and 3 of this Act; Signed by the intended parent, the gestational carrier, and the gestational 18 (c) 19 carrier's partner, if any; and 20 Notarized or witnessed by two disinterested competent adults; (d) 21 (4)The agreement provides: 22 The express agreement of the gestational carrier to undergo embryo (a) 23 transfer, attempt to carry and give birth to the child, and surrender custody 24 of all resulting children to the intended parents upon the birth of the child; 25 (b) The express agreement of the intended parent to accept exclusive custody 26 of the resulting child upon the child's birth regardless of the sex or mental 27 or physical condition of the child, or the number of children, if applicable, 28 and to assume sole responsibility for the support of the child immediately 29 upon the birth of the child; 30 (c) How an intended parent will cover the medical expenses and other expenses 31 related to the pregnancy of the gestational carrier and the medical expenses 32 of the child:

1	(d)	The express acknowledgement and agreement of the gestational carrier's
2		partner, if applicable, to be jointly bound by the obligations imposed on the
3		gestational carrier pursuant to the gestational carrier agreement;
4	(e)	That a right created under a surrogacy agreement is not assignable and
5		there is no third-party beneficiary of the agreement other than the child;
6		and
7	(f)	That the intended parent and the gestational carrier will consult with a
8		medical provider regarding the pregnancy and care of the child.
9	Section 5. That a	a NEW SECTION be added to title 25:
10	The fo	llowing occurrences do not affect the validity of a gestational carrier
11	agreement:
12	(1) The m	arriage, legal separation, or divorce of a gestational carrier after the
13	agreem	nent is signed by all parties. The carrier's spouse's consent to the agreement
14	is not r	required, and her spouse is not a presumed parent of a child conceived by
15	assiste	d reproduction under the agreement;
16	(2) The ma	arriage of an intended parent after the agreement is signed by all parties.
17	The new	w spouse's consent to the agreement is not required, and the spouse is not
18	a pres	umed parent of a child conceived by assisted reproduction under the
19	agreem	nent; or
20	(3) The de	ath, legal separation, or divorce of an intended parent after the agreement
21	is signe	ed by all parties. The intended parent is the parent of the child;
22	Any pa	rty to the gestational carrier agreement may terminate the agreement at
23	any time prior	to implantation of the embryo for any reason or no reason. If a transfer
24	does not resul	t in a pregnancy, any party may terminate the agreement at any time prior
25	to a subseque	nt embryo transfer.
26	Section 6. That	a NEW SECTION be added to title 25:
27	Upon th	ne birth of a child, the following rights of parentage vest under a gestational
28	surrogacy arra	ingement pursuant to this chapter:
29	(1) An inte	nded parent is the parent of the child for purposes of state law;
30	(2) The chi	Id is considered the child of the intended parent for purposes of state law;
31	(3) Parenta	al rights vest in the intended parent; and
32	(4) Sole cu	stody, care, and control of the child rest solely with the intended parent.

Neither the gestational carrier nor spouse or partner of the gestational carrier, if

2 any, is the parent of the child for purposes of state law unless a genetic test proves the 3 child is the biological child of the gestational carrier. Section 7. That a NEW SECTION be added to title 25: 4 5 A court shall enter an order of parentage if it finds the order is in the best interest 6 of the child, prior to the birth of a child. The orders of parentage immediately vest parental rights and duties in the intended parent. The order must designate the content of the birth 7 8 record in accordance with section 6 of this Act and direct the South Dakota Department 9 of Health to designate each intended parent as the parent of the child. 10 A judgment establishing the intended parent's exclusive legal parentage may be 11 established before birth. The judgment has the same effect and is subject to the same 12 procedures, defenses, and proceedings as any other civil judgment. 13 The petition to establish parentage must state that the parties entered into a valid gestational carrier agreement and a pregnancy or birth has resulted. 14 Section 8. That a NEW SECTION be added to title 25: 15 A person who is considered the parent of a child under this chapter is obligated to 16 17 support the child. A breach of the gestational carrier agreement by an intended parent 18 does not relieve the intended parent of the support obligation imposed by sections 4 and 19 6 of this Act. 20 Section 9. That a NEW SECTION be added to title 25: A gamete donor is not a legal parent if the donor: 21 22 Has waived any and all rights to the donated gametes and any resultant embryos (1) 23 or children, in a written record; and 24 (2) The donation occurs via medical assisted reproduction. 25 Section 10. That a NEW SECTION be added to title 25: 26 This Act is effective July 1, 2022, and applies to agreements entered into on or 27 after that date.
