A LEGISLATIVE COMMEMORATION, Honoring Randy Parry for his work with the Maroney Rural Learning Center and his contributions to rural South Dakota.

WHEREAS, Randy Parry was a founding member of the Maroney Rural Learning Center in Howard, South Dakota, a group whose central purpose is to revitalize the rural community; and

WHEREAS, the Maroney Rural Learning Center has become a model for rural development, helping with the construction of wind turbines, the introduction of business development in Energy Maintenance Services, Knight & Carver, and Dakota Beef, the refurbishing of the local nursing home, the building of a $6.4 million hotel and convention center, and the construction of the Maroney Rural Learning Center facility, all of which brought in new jobs and economic growth; and

WHEREAS, the Maroney Rural Learning Center provides a central location for members of the community to meet and learn new skills for the betterment of rural areas and new avenues for personal economic growth; and

WHEREAS, after nearly a decade of leading the Maroney Rural Learning Center, Randy Parry is stepping aside as president to pursue other goals such as spending time with his grandchildren and friends:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT COMMEMORATED, by the Eighty-sixth Legislature of the State of South Dakota, that the Legislature honors Randy Parry for his contributions to the Howard community, the Maroney Rural Learning Center, and rural South Dakota.
