Section 2. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-2. Power of Attorney--Inapplicable.

This chapter applies to all powers of attorney other than:

- (1) A power to the extent it is coupled with an interest in the subject of the power, including a power given to or for the benefit of a creditor in connection with a credit transaction;

- (2) A power to make health care decisions;
- (3) A proxy or other delegation to exercise voting rights or management rights with respect to an entity; or
- (4) A power created on a form prescribed by a government or governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality for a governmental purpose.

Section 3. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-3. Agent--Effect--Disability.

If a principal designates another as the principal's agent by a written power of attorney which contains the words "This power of attorney shall not be affected by disability of the principal," or "This power of attorney shall become effective upon the disability of the principal," or similar words showing the intent of the principal that the authority conferred is exercisable notwithstanding the principal's disability, the authority of the power of attorney is exercisable by the agent as provided in the power of attorney on behalf of the principal notwithstanding any later disability or incapacity of the principal or later uncertainty as to whether or not the principal is dead or alive.

Section 4. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-4. Signature--Presence--Notary Public.

A power of attorney shall be signed by the principal or in the principal's conscious presence by another individual directed by the principal to sign the principal's name on the power of attorney. Any signature under this section shall be acknowledged before a notary public or other individual authorized by law to take acknowledgments.

Section 5. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-5. Power of Attorney--Validity.

- (1) A power of attorney executed in this state on or after July 1, 2020, is valid if its execution complies with § 59-12-4.
- (2) A power of attorney executed in this state before July 1, 2020, is valid if its execution complied with the law of this state as it existed at the time of execution.
- (3) A power of attorney executed other than in this state is valid in this state if, when the power of attorney was executed, the execution complied with:
 - (a) The law of the jurisdiction that determines the meaning and effect of the power of attorney pursuant to § 59-12-6; or

- (b) The requirements for a military power of attorney pursuant to 10 U.S.C. § 1044(b).
- (4) Except as otherwise provided by law, a photocopy or electronically transmitted copy of an original power of attorney has the same effect as the original.

Section 6. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-6. Power of Attorney--Jurisdiction.

The meaning and effect of a power of attorney is determined by the law of the jurisdiction indicated in the power of attorney and, in the absence of an indication of jurisdiction, by the law of the jurisdiction in which the power of attorney was executed.

Section 7. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-7. Nomination--Conservator--Guardian.

- (1) In a power of attorney, a principal may nominate a conservator or guardian for consideration by the court. Except for good cause shown or disqualification, the court shall make its appointment in accordance with the principal's most recent nomination. A guardian appointed under this section shall be subject to the provisions of § 59-7-11.
- (2) If, after a principal executes a power of attorney, a court appoints a conservator or other fiduciary charged with the management of some or all of the principal's property, the power of attorney is terminated and the agent shall account to the conservator or other court-appointed fiduciary and promptly deliver any property of the principal in the agent's possession to the conservator or other court-appointed fiduciary unless otherwise ordered by the court.

Section 8. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-8. Power of Attorney--Effective.

- (1) A power of attorney is effective when executed unless the principal provides in the power of attorney that it becomes effective at a future date or upon the occurrence of a future event or contingency.
- (2) If a power of attorney becomes effective upon the occurrence of a future event or contingency, the principal, in the power of attorney, may authorize one or more persons to determine in a writing or other record that the event or contingency has occurred.

- (3) If a power of attorney becomes effective upon the principal's incapacity and the principal has not authorized a person to determine whether the principal is incapacitated, or the person authorized is unable or unwilling to make the determination, the power of attorney becomes effective upon a determination in a writing or other record by:
- (a) A physician or licensed psychologist that the principal is incapacitated within the meaning in § 59-12-1; or
 - (b) An attorney at law, a judge, or an appropriate governmental official that the principal is incapacitated within the meaning in § 59-12-1.
- (4) A person authorized by the principal in the power of attorney to determine that the principal is incapacitated may act as the principal's personal representative pursuant to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, Sections 1171 through 1179 of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1320(d), and applicable regulations, to obtain access to the principal's health care information and communicate with the principal's health care provider.

Section 9. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-9. Power of Attorney--Termination.

- (1) A power of attorney terminates when:
- (a) The principal dies;
 - (b) The principal becomes incapacitated, if the power of attorney is not durable;
 - (c) The principal revokes the power of attorney;
 - (d) The power of attorney provides that it terminates;
 - (e) The purpose of a limited or special power of attorney is accomplished;
 - (f) The principal revokes the agent's authority or the agent dies, becomes incapacitated, or resigns, and the power of attorney does not provide for another agent to act under the power of attorney; or
 - (g) Pursuant to subdivision 59-12-7(2).
- (2) An agent's authority terminates when:
- (a) The principal revokes the authority;
 - (b) The agent dies, becomes incapacitated, or resigns;
 - (c) An action is filed for divorce or annulment of the agent's marriage to the principal, or for their legal separation, or for a protection order, unless the power of attorney otherwise provides;
 - (d) The power of attorney terminates.

- (3) Unless the power of attorney otherwise provides, an agent's authority is exercisable until the authority terminates under subdivision (2) of this section, notwithstanding a lapse of time since the execution of the power of attorney.
- (4) Termination of an agent's authority or of a power of attorney is not effective as to the agent or any other person that, without actual knowledge of the termination, acts in good faith under the power of attorney. An act performed under this section, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, binds the principal and the principal's successors in interest.
- (5) Incapacity of the principal of a power of attorney that is not durable does not revoke or terminate the power of attorney as to an agent or other person that, without actual knowledge of the incapacity, acts in good faith under the power of attorney. An act performed under this section, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, binds the principal and the principal's successors in interest.
- (6) The execution of a power of attorney does not revoke a power of attorney previously executed by the principal unless the subsequent power of attorney provides that the previous power of attorney is revoked or that all other powers of attorney are revoked.

Section 10. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-10. Appointment--Agents.

- (1) A principal may designate two or more persons to act as co-agents. If two or more persons are appointed as co-agents, and unless the power of attorney otherwise provides, the concurrence of a majority is required on all acts connected with the power of attorney. This restriction does not apply when any co-agent receives and receipts for property due the principal, when the concurrence of a majority cannot readily be obtained in the time reasonably available for emergency action necessary to act in the principal's best interest, or when a co-agent has been delegated to act for others as provided in § 59-12-23. Persons dealing with a co-agent if actually unaware that another has been appointed to serve or if advised by the agent with whom they deal that the agent has authority to act alone for any of the reasons mentioned herein, are fully protected as if the person with whom they dealt has been the sole agent.
- (2) A principal may designate one or more successor agents to act if an agent resigns, dies, becomes incapacitated, is not qualified to serve, or declines to serve. A principal may grant authority to designate one or more successor agents to an agent or other person designated by name, office, or function. Unless the power of attorney otherwise provides, a successor agent:

- (a) Has the same authority granted to the original agent; and
 - (b) May not act until all predecessor agents have resigned, died, become incapacitated, are no longer qualified to serve, or have declined to serve.
- (3) Except as otherwise provided in the power of attorney and subdivision (4), an agent that does not participate in or conceal a breach of fiduciary duty committed by another agent, including a predecessor agent, is not liable for the actions of the other agent.
- (4) An agent that has actual knowledge of a breach or imminent breach of fiduciary duty by another agent shall notify the principal and, if the principal is incapacitated, take any action reasonably appropriate in the circumstances to safeguard the principal's best interest. An agent that fails to notify the principal or take action as required by this subdivision is liable for any reasonably foreseeable damages that could have been avoided if the agent had notified the principal or taken any action under this section.

Section 11. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-11. Agent--Reimbursement--Compensation.

An agent is entitled to reimbursement of expenses reasonably incurred on behalf of the principal. An agent is entitled to reasonable compensation for services rendered on behalf of the principal unless the power of attorney otherwise provides. Any compensation shall be reasonable under the circumstances.

Section 12. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-12. Acceptance--Exercising Authority.

Except as otherwise provided in the power of attorney, a person accepts appointment as an agent under a power of attorney by exercising authority or performing duties as an agent or by any other assertion or conduct indicating acceptance.

Section 13. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-13. Agent--Duties.

- (1) Notwithstanding provisions in the power of attorney, an agent that has accepted appointment shall:

- (a) Act in accordance with the principal's reasonable expectations to the extent actually known by the agent and otherwise in the principal's best interest;
 - (b) Act in good faith;
 - (c) Act only within the scope of authority granted in the power of attorney; and
 - (d) If feasible, encourage the principal to participate in decisions, to act on the principal's own behalf, and to develop or regain the capacity to manage the principal's own affairs, if the principal is incapacitated.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided in the power of attorney, an agent that has accepted appointment shall:
- (a) Act loyally for the principal's benefit;
 - (b) Act so as not to create a conflict of interest that impairs the agent's ability to act impartially in the principal's best interest;
 - (c) Act with the care, competence, and diligence ordinarily exercised by agents in similar circumstances;
 - (d) Keep an accurate and contemporaneous record of any receipt, disbursement, and transaction made on behalf of the principal including any reimbursement or compensation pursuant to § 59-12-11;
 - (e) Cooperate with a person that has authority to make health care decisions for the principal to carry out the principal's reasonable expectations to the extent actually known by the agent and otherwise act in the principal's best interest; and
 - (f) Attempt to preserve the principal's estate plan, to the extent actually known by the agent, if preserving the plan is consistent with the principal's best interest based on all relevant factors, including:
 - (i) The value and nature of the principal's property;
 - (ii) The principal's foreseeable obligations and need for maintenance;
 - (iii) Minimization of taxes, including income, estate, inheritance, generation-skipping transfer, and gift taxes; and
 - (iv) Eligibility for a benefit, a program, or assistance under a statute or regulation.
- (3) An agent that acts in good faith is not liable to any beneficiary of the principal's estate plan for failure to preserve the plan.
- (4) An agent that acts with care, competence, and diligence for the best interest of the principal is not liable solely because the agent also benefits from the act or has an individual or conflicting interest in relation to the property or affairs of the principal.

- (5) Absent a breach of duty to the principal, an agent is not liable if the value of the principal's property declines.
- (6) An agent that exercises authority to delegate to another person the authority granted by the principal or that engages another person on behalf of the principal is not liable for an act, error of judgment, or default of that person if the agent exercises care, competence, and diligence in selecting, instructing, and monitoring the person.
- (7) Except as otherwise provided in the power of attorney, an agent is not required to disclose receipts, disbursements, or transactions conducted on behalf of the principal unless ordered by a court or requested by the principal, a guardian, a conservator, another fiduciary acting for the principal, a governmental agency having authority to protect the welfare of the principal, or, upon the death of the principal, by the personal representative or successor in interest of the principal's estate. The agent shall comply within thirty days with the request under this section or provide a writing or other record explaining why additional time is needed and shall comply with the request under this section within thirty days from the writing or other record.

Section 14. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-14. Agent--Liability.

A provision in a power of attorney relieving an agent of liability for breach of duty is binding on the principal and the principal's successors in interest except to the extent the provision:

- (1) Relieves the agent of liability for breach of duty committed dishonestly, with an improper motive, or with reckless indifference to the purposes of the power of attorney or the best interest of the principal; or
- (2) Was inserted as a result of an abuse of a confidential or fiduciary relationship with the principal.

Section 15. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-15. Petition--Court.

- (1) In addition to any petition under chapter 21-65, the following persons may petition a court to construe a power of attorney or review the agent's conduct, and grant appropriate relief:
 - (a) The principal or the agent;

- (b) A guardian, conservator, or other fiduciary acting for the principal;
 - (c) A person authorized to make health care decisions for the principal;
 - (d) The principal's spouse, parent, or descendant;
 - (e) An individual who would qualify as a presumptive heir of the principal;
 - (f) A person named as a beneficiary to receive any property, benefit, or contractual right on the principal's death or as a beneficiary of a trust created by or for the principal that has a financial interest in the principal's estate;
 - (g) A governmental agency having regulatory authority to protect the welfare of the principal;
 - (h) The principal's caregiver or another person that demonstrates sufficient interest in the principal's welfare; and
 - (i) A person asked to accept the power of attorney.
- (2) Upon motion by the principal, the court shall dismiss a petition filed under this section, unless the court finds that the principal lacks capacity to revoke the agent's authority or the power of attorney.

Section 16. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-16. Agent--Violation--Liable.

An agent that violates the provisions of this chapter is liable to the principal or the principal's successors in interest for the amount required to:

- (1) Restore the value of the principal's property to its value had the violation not occurred; and
- (2) Reimburse the principal or the principal's successors in interest for any attorney's fees and costs paid on the agent's behalf.

Section 17. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-17. Agent--Resignation.

Unless otherwise provided in the power of attorney, an agent may resign by giving notice to the principal and, if the principal is incapacitated, to the guardian, if any, and any co-agent or successor agent, or to:

- (1) The principal's caregiver; or
- (2) If there is no principal caregiver, to:
 - (a) Another person reasonably believed by the agent to have sufficient interest in the principal's welfare; or

- (b) A governmental agency having authority to protect the welfare of the principal.

Section 18. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-18. Acceptance--Good Faith.

- (1) For purposes of this section and § 52-12-19, the term, South Dakota compliant, means a power of attorney signed by the principal and substantially in the form provided in § 59-12-41 and acknowledged before a notary public or other individual authorized to take acknowledgements.
- (2) A person that in good faith accepts a South Dakota compliant power of attorney without actual knowledge that the signature is not genuine may rely upon the power attorney as being valid.
- (3) A person that in good faith accepts a South Dakota compliant power of attorney without actual knowledge that the power of attorney is void, invalid, or terminated; that the purported agent's authority is void, invalid, or terminated; or that the agent is exceeding or improperly exercising the agent's authority may rely upon the power of attorney as if the power of attorney were genuine, valid, and still in effect; the agent's authority were genuine, valid, and still in effect; and the agent had not exceeded and had properly exercised the authority.
- (4) A person that is asked to accept a South Dakota compliant power of attorney may request, and rely upon, without further investigation:
 - (a) An agent's certification under penalty of perjury of any factual matter concerning the principal, agent, or power of attorney;
 - (b) An English translation of the power of attorney if the power of attorney contains, in whole or in part, language other than English; and
 - (c) An opinion of counsel as to any matter of law concerning the power of attorney if the person making the request provides in a writing or other record the reason for the request.
- (5) An English translation or an opinion of counsel requested under this section shall be provided at the principal's expense unless the request is made more than ten business days after the power of attorney is presented for acceptance.
- (6) For purposes of this section and § 59-12-19, a person that conducts activities through employees is without actual knowledge of a fact relating to a power of attorney, a principal, or an agent if the employee conducting the transaction involving the power of attorney is without actual knowledge of the fact.

Section 19. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-19. Power of Attorney--Compliance.

- (1) A person shall accept a South Dakota compliant power of attorney or request a certification, a translation, or an opinion of counsel under subdivision 59-12-18(4) no later than ten business days after presentation of the power of attorney for acceptance. If a person requests a certification, a translation, or an opinion of counsel under subdivision 59-12-18(4), the person shall accept the power of attorney no later than five business days after receipt of the certification, translation, or opinion of counsel. A person may not require an additional or different form of power of attorney for authority granted in the power of attorney presented.

 - (f) The person makes, or has actual knowledge that another person has made, a report to the South Dakota Department of Social Services, South Dakota Department of Human Services, or law enforcement stating a good faith belief that the principal may be subject to physical or financial abuse, neglect, exploitation, or abandonment by the agent or a person acting for or with the agent.
- (3) A person that refuses in violation of this section to accept a South Dakota compliant power of attorney is subject to:

- (2) Notwithstanding a grant of authority to do an act described in subdivision (1), unless the power of attorney otherwise provides, an agent that is not an ancestor, spouse, or descendant of the principal, may not exercise authority under a power of attorney to create in the agent, or in an individual to whom the agent owes a legal obligation of support, an interest in the principal's property, whether by gift, right of survivorship, beneficiary designation, disclaimer, or otherwise.
 - (3) Subject to subdivisions (1), (2), (4), and (5) of this section, if a power of attorney grants to an agent authority to do all acts that a principal could do, the agent has the general authority described in §§ 59-12-26 through 59-12-38.

 - (8) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (1), an agent may amend, terminate, or revoke an inter vivos revocable trust only when the settlor is incapacitated or not reasonably available and to the extent expressly authorized by the power of attorney and by the terms of the governing trust instrument.

Section 24. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-24. Agent--General Authority.

- (1) An agent has authority described in this chapter if the power of attorney refers to general authority with respect to the descriptive term for the subjects stated in §§ 59-12-26 through 59-12-39 or cites the section in which the authority is described.

- (2) A reference in a power of attorney to general authority with respect to the descriptive term for a subject in §§ 59-12-26 through 59-12-39 or a citation to §§ 59-12-26 through 59-12-39 incorporates the entire section as if it were set out in full in the power of attorney.
- (3) A principal may modify authority incorporated by reference.

Section 25. That a NEW SECTION be added:

59-12-25. Agent--Specific Authority.

Except as otherwise provided in the power of attorney, by executing a power of attorney that incorporates by reference a subject described in §§ 59-12-26 through 59-12-39 or that grants to an agent authority to do all acts that a principal could do pursuant to subdivision 59-12-23(3), a principal authorizes the agent, regarding that subject, to:
