by deleting all language after the caption and substituting:

WHEREAS, antisemitism, including harassment on the basis of actual or perceived Jewish origin, ancestry, ethnicity, identity, affiliation, or faith, remains a persistent, pervasive, and disturbing problem in contemporary American society; and

WHEREAS, the Uniform Crime Reporting program reported that Jews are consistently the most likely of all religious groups to be victimized by incidents of hate; and

WHEREAS, state officials and institutions have a responsibility to protect citizens from acts of hate and bigotry motivated by discriminatory animus, including antisemitism and must be given the tools to do so; and

WHEREAS, valid monitoring, informed analysis and investigation, and effective policy-making all require uniform definitions; and

WHEREAS, while there can be no exhaustive definition of antisemitism, as it can take many forms, the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) working definition has been an essential definitional tool used to determine contemporary manifestations of antisemitism, and includes useful examples of discriminatory anti-Israel acts that cross the line into antisemitism; and

WHEREAS, the IHRA definition is used by various agencies of the federal government and the thirty-three governments that are members of the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance; recommended for use by the European Council and the European Parliament; endorsed by the United Nations Secretary General and the Secretary General of the Organization of American States; included in policy guides prepared by the Organization for

Security and Cooperation in Europe; and formally adopted by a growing number of European nations, cities, universities, and civil society organizations; and

WHEREAS, use of this definition of antisemitism, although it is not to be taken as an exhaustive definition, will increase the awareness and understanding of the parameters of contemporary anti-Jewish discrimination in certain circumscribed areas; now, therefore,

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 49, Chapter 6, Part 3, is amended by adding the following as a new section:
