AMEND

House Joint Resolution No. 13***

by deleting the following language from the first resolving clause:

Elections for Judicial and other civil officers shall be held on the first Thursday in August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and, beginning with the election in the year two thousand twenty-eight, forever thereafter on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November next preceding the expiration of their respective terms of service. The term of each officer so elected shall be computed from the first day of November next succeeding his election.

and substituting instead:

Beginning with the election held in 2030, judicial officers and all other elected county officials, except the assessor of property, are elected on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November next preceding the expiration of their respective terms of service. The term of each officer so elected is computed from the first day of December next succeeding the officer's election. Beginning with the election held in 2028, the assessors of property are elected on the first Thursday in August next preceding the expiration of their respective terms of service. The term of the assessor of property so elected is computed from the first day of September next succeeding his election.
