SUMMARY OF BILL: Prohibits an individual from holding an elected office of a local government and another elected office in this state at the same time. Specifies that the prohibition does not apply to an office in a political party's state executive committee.

FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- Pursuant to the proposed language, individuals holding more than one office on the effective date of the legislation may continue holding such offices until the terms expire.
- Therefore, the proposed legislation will not result in the need for any special elections and will not result in an increase in state or local expenditures.
- It is assumed that there will be no significant change in the number of individuals seeking office as a result of the proposed legislation.

CERTIFICATION:

The information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
