(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed in any way to impair the ability of a court to:

(1) Create or confer a private right of action or impose an affirmative duty in the absence of a controlling statute if such action or duty is based on the common law; or

(2) Impute negligence or unlawful conduct to a party based upon the party's violation of a statute.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it and shall apply to any action that has not yet been commenced prior to its effective date or is commenced on or after its effective date.
