

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 109

By Miller

A RESOLUTION to propose an amendment to Article XI, Section 5 of the Constitution of Tennessee, relative to gambling.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED TENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that a majority of all the members of each house concurring, as shown by the yeas and nays entered on their journals, that it is proposed that Article XI, Section 5 of the Constitution of Tennessee be amended by deleting the following language:

A state lottery means a lottery of the type such as in operation in Georgia, Kentucky and Virginia in 2000, and the amendment to Article XI, Section 5 of the Constitution of the State of Tennessee provided for herein does not authorize games of chance associated with casinos, including, but not limited to, slot machines, roulette wheels, and the like.

The state lottery authorized in this section shall be implemented and administered uniformly throughout the state in such manner as the legislature, by general law, deems appropriate.

and by substituting instead the following language:

A state lottery means a lottery of the type such as in operation in Georgia, Kentucky and Virginia in 2000. The state lottery authorized in this section shall be implemented and administered uniformly throughout the state in such manner as the legislature, by general law, deems appropriate.

The legislature may authorize casinos and games of chance associated with casinos to be operated within this state. Casino gaming authorized in this section shall be implemented and administered in such manner as the legislature, by general law, deems appropriate.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the foregoing amendment be referred to the One Hundred Eleventh General Assembly and that this resolution proposing such amendment be published in accordance with Article XI, Section 3 of the Constitution of Tennessee.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is directed to deliver a copy of this resolution to the Secretary of State.
