

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 1058

By Behn

A RESOLUTION to honor and congratulate Hume-Fogg High School upon its receipt of the Secretary of State's Anne Dallas Dudley Silver Level Award.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should pay tribute to those public schools in Tennessee that, through the unflagging commitment to excellence evidenced by their administration, faculty, staff, students, and parents, have achieved significant milestones; and

WHEREAS, Hume-Fogg High School, an academic magnet school in the Metro Nashville Public School district, is one such school, which recently earned the Secretary of State's Anne Dallas Dudley Silver Level Award by registering eighty-five percent of its eligible students who are eighteen years of age or older to vote; and

WHEREAS, the Secretary of State's office launched the Anne Dallas Dudley Award program for the 2021-2022 school year to promote voter registration among Tennessee high school students; and

WHEREAS, those high schools that register 100 percent of their eligible students earn the Anne Dallas Dudley Gold Level Award, while high schools that register at least eighty-five percent of their eligible students earn the Anne Dallas Dudley Silver Level Award; and

WHEREAS, all Tennessee public, charter, or private schools or home school associations can participate in the Anne Dallas Dudley Award program; this year, fifty-one high schools in forty counties across the State earned the Anne Dallas Dudley Award by meeting student voter registration thresholds; and

WHEREAS, the Anne Dallas Dudley Award is part of the Secretary of State's civics engagement initiative to increase voter registration in Tennessee and prepare students to be actively engaged citizens; and

WHEREAS, the award is named in honor of renowned Tennessee suffragist Anne Dallas Dudley, who helped lead the successful effort to get the 19th Amendment to the United States Constitution ratified; on August 18, 1920, Tennessee became the thirty-sixth and final state needed to give women the right to vote; and

WHEREAS, Hume-Fogg High School's receipt of this award is a tremendous source of pride for the administration, teachers, students, and parents of the community; and

WHEREAS, the dedication to civic engagement demonstrated by all the fine individuals affiliated with Hume-Fogg High School is clearly deserving of our respect, admiration, and commendation; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor and congratulate Hume-Fogg High School on its receipt of the Secretary of State's Anne Dallas Dudley Silver Level Award, salute the school's administration, faculty, staff, students, and parents on this significant achievement, and extend to them our best wishes for continued success in the future.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
