

HOUSE RESOLUTION 357

By Miller L

A RESOLUTION to commend Ronald G. Little for exemplary service as a legislative intern.

WHEREAS, each legislative session this body is pleased to recognize certain persons who have committed themselves, through their adroit service, to the betterment of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Ronald G. Little is one such individual who has distinguished himself in his role as a legislative intern for Representative Larry Miller and Representative Karen Camper; Mr. Little's work has resulted in innumerable benefits for the legislators he assisted and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, already holding a degree in General Studies from Central Texas College, Ronald Little is currently a student at the University of Memphis, where he is highly regarded by his peers, and has achieved academic success while majoring in Criminal Justice and Philosophy and participating in numerous extracurricular activities; and

WHEREAS, following the patriotic tradition for which the Volunteer State is renowned, Mr. Little answered duty's call and bravely served his country with honor in the United States Army; and

WHEREAS, possessing a kind and compassionate heart, Ronald Little enjoys tutoring both adults and children and instilling in them the belief that, with hard work and discipline, they too can make their dreams come true; and

WHEREAS, an inspiration to all who are privileged to know him, Mr. Little overcame tremendous obstacles and stunned his physicians by learning to walk again after a horrific car accident left him paralyzed from the waist down; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of his singular academic achievements, Mr. Little was awarded a TRIO scholarship; and

WHEREAS, eager to familiarize himself with the characteristics and complexities of Tennessee state government and to further his studies, Ronald Little brought his many abilities and singular expertise to Capitol Hill for the 2010 session of the One Hundred Sixth General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, throughout the 2010 legislative session, this remarkable young man has surpassed all criteria that define a devoted and conscientious legislative intern; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Little has performed his many duties with extraordinary insight and rare decorum; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED SIXTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we hereby commend Ronald G. Little for outstanding service as a legislative intern for Representative Larry Miller and Representative Karen Camper and extend to him our best wishes for every future success.
