

SENATE BILL 2152

By Summerville

AN ACT to amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 4, Chapter 21, to enact the "Tennessee Civil Rights Initiative Act" relative to discrimination and preferences in government.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 4, Chapter 21, Part 1, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

(a) This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Tennessee Civil Rights Initiative Act".

(b) The state shall not discriminate nor grant preferential treatment to any individual or group on the basis of race, sex, color, ethnicity, sexual orientation or national origin in the operation of all aspects of public employment, public education or public contracting.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to:

(1) Prohibit bona fide occupational qualifications based on sex as set out in § 4-21-406 that are reasonably necessary for the normal and efficient operation of public employment, public education or public contracting;

(2) Invalidate any court order or consent decree that is in full force and effect on the effective date of this section; or

(3) Prohibit action required to be taken to establish or maintain eligibility for any federal program or federally-funded program where ineligibility would result in a loss of federal funds to the state.

(d) The remedies available for a violation of this section shall be the same, regardless of the injured party's race, sex, color, ethnicity, sexual orientation or national origin, and shall be the same as provided by law for existing Tennessee laws prohibiting discrimination.

(e) As used in this section, “state” means the state of Tennessee, any political subdivision thereof, all public university systems, including the University of Tennessee system, the board of regents, all school districts, special school districts and any other entity or instrumentality of the state that derives its authority from the state.

SECTION . This act shall take effect July 1, 2012, the public welfare requiring it.
