

SENATE RESOLUTION 109

By Walley

A RESOLUTION to honor and congratulate Kady Johnson of Savannah Christian Academy on surpassing the 1,000-point mark in her middle school basketball career.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we should recognize those incredibly successful student athletes who have attained significant milestones in their careers; and

WHEREAS, Kady Johnson, an eighth-grade student at Savannah Christian Academy, recently surpassed the 1,000-point mark while playing for the Lady Eagles; and

WHEREAS, to reach this milestone, Ms. Johnson scored thirty points in the Lady Eagles' recent victory over Adamsville, giving her 1,006 points in her basketball career; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Johnson has now claimed her rightful place among the most elite basketball players in Savannah Christian Academy history, joining just three others who have surpassed the 1,000-point milestone; and

WHEREAS, along with her exceptional talent, Kady Johnson has a strong work ethic and an incredible will to win that makes her a key player and a great leader on the team; and

WHEREAS, Kady Johnson exemplifies the spirit, determination, and perseverance for which Tennesseans are notable, and she is richly deserving of our approbation on this special occasion; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED TWELFTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we honor and congratulate Kady Johnson of Savannah Christian Academy upon surpassing the 1,000-point mark in her middle school basketball career and wish her all the best in her future endeavors, both on and off the court.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
