1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Health Care Choices
3 for Seniors Act”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress finds the following:

6 (1) The Social Security Administration’s Pro-
7 gram Operations Manual System section HI
8 00801.002, titled “Waiver of Hospital Insurance 9 Entitlement by Monthly Beneficiary”, provides that 10 an individual who does not sign up for part A of the 11 Medicare program when the individual signs up for 12 social security benefits will lose such benefits, re-
13 gardless of the desire of the individual to not partici-
14 pate in the Medicare program because of religious or 15 philosophical reasons or a preference to have private 16 health insurance.

17 (2) As part of the Medicare Prescription Drug,
18 Improvement, and Modernization Act of 2003 (Pub-19 lic Law 108–173), Congress increased health insur-
20 ance options by authorizing health savings accounts
21 into which individuals may make annual contribu-
22 tions of not more than $2,650 and families may 23 make such contributions of not more than $5,250
24 that are allowable as deductions for income tax pur-
25 poses. Seniors are not allowed to deduct contribu-
26 tions to their health savings account after the date

1 of the entitlement of such seniors to Medicare bene-
2 fits.

3 (3) Section 1802(b) of the Social Security Act
4 (42 U.S.C. 1395a(b)), added by section 4507 of the 5 Balanced Budget Act of 1997, states that a Medi-
6 care beneficiary may only enter into a private con-
7 tract with a physician for an item or service if no
8 claim for payment under title XVIII of such Act will 9 be submitted. In the case of such contract, the phy-10 sician must sign an affidavit that acknowledges such 11 contract and that provides that the physician will 12 not submit a claim, and will forgo reimbursement, 13 under such title for an item or service provided to 14 any Medicare beneficiary for a period of two years.
