A BILL

To preserve existing rights and responsibilities with respect to waters of the United States, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Regulatory Integrity 5 Protection Act of 2015”.

1   SEC. 2. WITHDRAWAL OF EXISTING PROPOSED RULE.

2       Not later than 30 days after the date of enactment
3   of this Act, the Secretary of the Army and the Adminis-4   trator of the Environmental Protection Agency shall with-5   draw the proposed rule described in the notice of proposed 6   rule published in the Federal Register entitled “Definition 7   of ‘Waters of the United States’ Under the Clean Water 8   Act” (79 Fed. Reg. 22188 (April 21, 2014)) and any final 9   rule based on such proposed rule (including RIN 2040– 10 AF30).

11   SEC. 3. DEVELOPMENT OF NEW PROPOSED RULE.

12       (a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of the Army and 13   the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agen-
14   cy shall develop a new proposed rule to define the term 15   “waters of the United States” as used in the Federal 16   Water Pollution Control Act (33 U.S.C. 1251 et seq.).

17       (b) DEVELOPMENT OF NEW PROPOSED RULE.—In 18   developing the new proposed rule under subsection (a), the 19   Secretary and the Administrator shall—

20           (1) take into consideration the public comments 21   received on—

22                  (A) the proposed rule referred to in section 23   2;

24                  (B) the accompanying economic analysis of 25   the proposed rule entitled “Economic Analysis

1           of Proposed Revised Definition of Waters of the 2           United States” (dated March 2014); and 3                 (C) the report entitled “Connectivity of 4                 Streams & Wetlands to Downstream Waters: A 5                 Review & Synthesis of Scientific Evidence” 6                 (EPA/600/R-14/475F; dated January 2015);

7                 (2) jointly consult with and solicit advice and 8                 recommendations from representative State and 9                 local officials, stakeholders, and other interested par-10                 ties on how to define the term “waters of the United 11                 States” as used in the Federal Water Pollution Con-12                 trol Act; and 13                 (3) prepare a regulatory proposal that will, con-14                 sistent with applicable rulings of the United States 15                 Supreme Court, specifically identify those waters 16                 covered under, and those waters not covered under, 17                 the Federal Water Pollution Control Act—

18                     (A) taking into consideration—

19                             (i) the public comments referred to in 20                             paragraph (1); and 21                             (ii) the advice and recommendations 22                             made by the State and local officials, 23                             stakeholders, and other interested parties 24                             consulted under this section; and

(B) incorporating the areas and issues where consensus was reached with the parties.

3 (c) FEDERALISM CONSULTATION REQUIREMENTS.—

4 As part of consulting with and soliciting advice and rec-5 ommendations from State and local officials under sub-6 section (b), the Secretary and the Administrator shall—

7                   (1) seek to reach consensus with the State and 8 local officials on how to define the term “waters of 9 the United States” as used in the Federal Water 10 Pollution Control Act;

(2) provide the State and local officials with notice and an opportunity to participate in the consultation process under subsection (b);

18 (4) emphasize the importance of collaboration 19 with and among the State and local officials;

(5) allow for meaningful and timely input by the State and local officials;

22                         (6) recognize, preserve, and protect the primary 23                         rights and responsibilities of the States to protect 24                         water quality under the Federal Water Pollution 25                         Control Act, and to plan and control the develop-

1       ment and use of land and water resources in the 2       States;

3               (7) protect the authorities of State and local 4       governments and rights of private property owners 5       over natural and manmade water features;

6               (8) incorporate the advice and recommendations 7       of the State and local officials regarding matters in-8       volving differences in State and local geography, hy-9       drology, climate, legal frameworks, economies, prior-10      ities, and needs; and

11               (9) ensure transparency in the consultation 12       process, including promptly making accessible to the 13       public all communications, records, and other docu-
14       ments of all meetings that are part of the consulta-
15       tion process.

16       (d) STAKEHOLDER CONSULTATION REQUIRE-
17       MENTS.—As part of consulting with and soliciting rec-18       ommendations from stakeholders and other interested par-19       ties under subsection (b), the Secretary and the Adminis-20       trator shall—

21               (1) identify representatives of public and pri-22       vate stakeholders and other interested parties, in-23       cluding small entities (as defined in section 601 of 24       title 5, United States Code), representing a broad 25       cross-section of regional, economic, and geographic

1 perspectives in the United States, which could poten-2 tially be affected, directly or indirectly, by the new 3 proposed rule under subsection (a), for the purpose 4 of obtaining advice and recommendations from those 5 representatives about the potential adverse impacts 6 of the new proposed rule and means for reducing 7 such impacts in the new proposed rule; and

8                   (2) ensure transparency in the consultation
9 process, including promptly making accessible to the 10 public all communications, records, and other docu-
11 ments of all meetings that are part of the consulta-
12 tion process.

13       (e) TIMING OF FEDERALISM AND STAKEHOLDER
14 CONSULTATION.—Not later than 3 months after the date
15 of enactment of this Act, the Secretary and the Adminis-16 trator shall initiate consultations with State and local offi-17 cials, stakeholders, and other interested parties under sub-18 section (b).

19 (f) REPORT.—The Secretary and the Administrator 20 shall prepare a report that—

21                   (1) identifies and responds to each of the public 22                   comments filed on—
23                   (A) the proposed rule referred to in section
24                   2;

(B) the accompanying economic analysis of the proposed rule entitled “Economic Analysis of Proposed Revised Definition of Waters of the United States” (dated March 2014); and

(C) the report entitled “Connectivity of Streams & Wetlands to Downstream Waters: A Review & Synthesis of Scientific Evidence” (EPA/600/R-14/475F; dated January 2015);

9 (2) provides a detailed explanation of how the 10 new proposed rule under subsection (a) addresses 11 the public comments referred to in paragraph (1);

12 (3) describes in detail—

(A) the advice and recommendations obtained from the State and local officials consulted under this section;

19 (C) the areas and issues of continuing dis-
20 agreement that resulted in the failure to reach 21 consensus; and

22 (D) the reasons for the continuing dis-23 agreements;

24 (4) provides a detailed explanation of how the 25 new proposed rule addresses the advice and rec-

1       ommendations provided by the State and local offi-2       cials consulted under this section, including the 3       areas and issues where consensus was reached with 4       the State and local officials;

5               (5) describes in detail—

6                       (A) the advice and recommendations ob-7       tained from the stakeholders and other inter-8       ested parties, including small entities, consulted 9       under this section about the potential adverse 10      impacts of the new proposed rule and means for 11      reducing such impacts in the new proposed rule; 12      and

13                       (B) how the new proposed rule addresses 14      such advice and recommendations;

15               (6) provides a detailed explanation of how the 16      new proposed rule—

17                       (A) recognizes, preserves, and protects the 18      primary rights and responsibilities of the States 19      to protect water quality and to plan and control 20      the development and use of land and water re-21      sources in the States; and 22                       (B) is consistent with the applicable rul-23      ings of the United States Supreme Court re-24      garding the scope of waters to be covered under 25      the Federal Water Pollution Control Act; and

(A) each program under the Federal Water Pollution Control Act for Federal, State, and local government agencies; and

(B) public and private stakeholders and other interested parties, including small entities, regulated under each such program.

12 (g) PUBLICATION.—

20 (A) the new proposed rule under sub-21 section (a);

22 (B) a description of the areas and issues
23 where consensus was reached with the State 24 and local officials consulted under this section; 25 and

1 (C) the report described in subsection (f).

(2) DURATION OF REVIEW.—The Secretary and the Administrator shall provide not fewer than 180 days for the public to review and comment on—

9 (C) the report described in subsection (f).

10       (h) PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS.—Subchapter II
11 of chapter 5, and chapter 7, of title 5, United States Code
12 (commonly known as the “Administrative Procedure Act”) 13 shall apply to the development and review of the new pro-14 posed rule under subsection (a).

15        (i) STATE AND LOCAL OFFICIALS DEFINED.—In this 16 section, the term “State and local officials” means elected 17 or professional State and local government officials or 18 their representative regional or national organizations.
