6 Section 501 of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe
7 Streets Act of 1968 (42 U.S.C. 3751) is amended by add-
8 ing at the end the following new subsection:

9 “(h) RACIAL DISPARITIES PRACTICES.—For years
10 beginning after the date of the enactment of the Byrne/
11 JAG Program Accountability Act, States and units of 12 local government receiving funds under this subpart shall 13 implement policy, practice, and system improvement strat-
14 egies at the State, local, and tribal levels, as applicable, 15 to identify and reduce racial and ethnic disparities among 16 individuals who come into contact with or are under the 17 supervision of the criminal justice system, without estab-
18 lishing or requiring numerical standards or quotas,
19 through each of the following methods:

20 “(1) Establishing coordinating bodies, com-
21 posed of criminal justice stakeholders at the State, 22 local, or tribal levels, as applicable, to oversee and 23 monitor efforts by such States, unit of local govern-
24 ment, or Indian tribe to reduce racial and ethnic dis-
25 parities.

1 “(2) Identifying and analyzing key decision
2 points in the criminal justice system of the State,
3 unit of local government, or Indian tribe, as applica-
4 ble, to determine which points create racial and eth-
5 nic disparities among those who come into contact
6 with the justice system.

7 “(3) Developing and implementing data collec-
8 tion and analysis systems to identify where racial 9 and ethnic disparities exist in the criminal justice
10 system and to track and analyze such disparities.

11 “(4) Developing and implementing a work plan
12 that includes measurable objectives for policy prac-
13 tice or other system changes, based on the needs
14 identified in the data collection and analysis under 15 paragraphs (2) and (3).

16 “(5) Publicly reporting, on an annual basis, the 17 efforts made in accordance with paragraphs (2), (3), 18 and (4) during the previous year.”.
