- 5 Congress makes the following findings:
- 6 (1) The incidence of violence motivated by the 7 actual or perceived race, color, religion, national ori-8 gin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, or 9 disability of the victim poses a serious national prob-10 lem.
  - (2) Such violence disrupts the tranquility and safety of communities and is deeply divisive.
  - (3) State and local authorities are now and will continue to be responsible for prosecuting the overwhelming majority of violent crimes in the United States, including violent crimes motivated by bias. These authorities can carry out their responsibilities more effectively with greater Federal assistance.
  - (4) Existing Federal law is inadequate to address this problem.
  - (5) A prominent characteristic of a violent crime motivated by bias is that it devastates not just the actual victim and the family and friends of the victim, but frequently savages the community sharing the traits that caused the victim to be selected.

1	(6) Such violence substantially affects interstate
2	commerce in many ways, including the following:
3	(A) The movement of members of targeted
4	groups is impeded, and members of such groups
5	are forced to move across State lines to escape
6	the incidence or risk of such violence.
7	(B) Members of targeted groups are pre-
8	vented from purchasing goods and services, ob-
9	taining or sustaining employment, or partici-
10	pating in other commercial activity.
11	(C) Perpetrators cross State lines to com-
12	mit such violence.
13	(D) Channels, facilities, and instrumental-
14	ities of interstate commerce are used to facili-
15	tate the commission of such violence.
16	(E) Such violence is committed using arti-
17	cles that have traveled in interstate commerce.
18	(7) For generations, the institutions of slavery
19	and involuntary servitude were defined by the race,
20	color, and ancestry of those held in bondage. Slavery
21	and involuntary servitude were enforced, both prior
22	to and after the adoption of the 13th amendment to
23	the Constitution of the United States, through wide-
24	spread public and private violence directed at persons because of their race, color, or ancestry, or per-

- ceived race, color, or ancestry. Accordingly, eliminating racially motivated violence is an important means of eliminating, to the extent possible, the badges, incidents, and relics of slavery and involuntary servitude.
  - (8) Both at the time when the 13th, 14th, and 15th amendments to the Constitution of the United States were adopted, and continuing to date, members of certain religious and national origin groups were and are perceived to be distinct "races". Thus, in order to eliminate, to the extent possible, the badges, incidents, and relics of slavery, it is necessary to prohibit assaults on the basis of real or perceived religions or national origins, at least to the extent such religions or national origins were regarded as races at the time of the adoption of the 13th, 14th, and 15th amendments to the Constitution of the United States.
    - (9) Federal jurisdiction over certain violent crimes motivated by bias enables Federal, State, and local authorities to work together as partners in the investigation and prosecution of such crimes.
    - (10) The problem of crimes motivated by bias is sufficiently serious, widespread, and interstate in

1	nature as to warrant Federal assistance to States,
2	local jurisdictions, and Indian tribes.
3	SEC. 3. DEFINITION OF HATE CRIME.
