A BILL

To amend the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to require issuers to make certain disclosures relating to the Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Uyghur Forced Labor
5 Disclosure Act”.

1   SEC. 2. DISCLOSURE OF CERTAIN ACTIVITIES RELATING TO
2                   THE XINJIANG UYGHUR AUTONOMOUS RE-
3                   GION.

4       (a) IN GENERAL.—Section 13 of the Securities Ex-
5 change Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78m) is amended by add-
6 ing at the end the following:

7       “(s) DISCLOSURE OF CERTAIN ACTIVITIES RELAT-
8 ING TO THE XINJIANG UYGHUR AUTONOMOUS REGION.—

9           “(1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than the end of 10          the 180-day period beginning on the date of enact-
11          ment of this subsection, the Commission shall issue 12          rules to require each issuer required to file an an-
13          nual report under this section or section 15(d) or a
14          proxy statement under section 14 to disclose in each 15          such report or proxy statement whether, during the 16          period covered by the report or proxy statement—

17           “(A) the issuer or any affiliate of the 18          issuer, directly or indirectly, engaged with an 19          entity or the affiliate of an entity to import—

20            “(i) manufactured goods, including 21              electronics, food products, textiles, shoes,
22              auto parts, polysilicon, and teas, that are 23              sourced from or through the XUAR;

24            “(ii) manufactured goods containing 25              materials that are sourced from or through 26              the XUAR; or

1                         “(iii) goods manufactured by an entity
2                         engaged in labor transfers from the 3                         XUAR;

4                         “(B) with respect to any goods or mate-
5                         rials described under subparagraph (A), wheth-
6                         er the goods or material originated in forced 7                         labor camps; and

8                         “(C) with respect to each manufactured
9                         good or material described under subparagraph
10                         (A)—

11                         “(i) the nature and extent of the com-
12                         mercial activity related to such good or 13                         material;

14                         “(ii) the gross revenue and net prof-
15                         its, if any, attributable to the good or ma-16                         terial; and

17                         “(iii) whether the issuer or the affil-
18                         iate of the issuer intends to continue with 19                         such importation.

20                         “(2) AVAILABILITY OF INFORMATION.—The 21                         Commission shall make all information disclosed 22                         pursuant to this subsection available to the public on 23                         the website of the Commission.

24                         “(3) REPORTS.—

1                 “(A) ANNUAL REPORT TO CONGRESS.—

2                 The Commission shall—

3                         “(i) conduct an annual assessment of 4                         the compliance of issuers with the require-5                         ments of this subsection; and

6                         “(ii) issue a report to Congress con-
7                         taining the results of the assessment re-
8                         quired under clause (i).

9                 “(B) GAO REPORT.—The Comptroller
10                 General of the United States shall periodically
11                 evaluate and report to Congress on the effec-
12                 tiveness of the oversight by the Commission of 13                 the disclosure requirements under this sub-
14                 section.

15                 “(4) DEFINITIONS.—In this subsection:

16                 “(A) FORCED LABOR CAMP.—The term
17                 ‘forced labor camp’ means—

18                         “(i) any entity engaged in the ‘mutual
19                         pairing assistance’ program which sub-
20                         sidizes the establishment of manufacturing
21                         facilities in XUAR;

22                         “(ii) any entity using convict labor,
23                         forced labor, or indentured labor described 24                         under section 307 of the Tariff Act of 25                         1930 (19 U.S.C. 1307); and

1                         “(iii) any other entity that the Com-
2                         mission determines is appropriate.

3                         “(B) XUAR.—The term ‘XUAR’ means
4                         the Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region.”.

5                         (b) REPEAL.—The amendment made by this section 6                         shall be repealed on the earlier of—

7                         (1) the date that is 8 years after the date of the 8                         enactment of this section; or

9                         (2) the date on which the President submits to 10                         Congress (including the Office of the Law Revision 11                         Council) a determination that the Government of the 12                         People’s Republic of China has ended mass intern-13                         ment, forced labor, and any other gross violations of 14                         human rights experienced by Uyghurs, Kazakhs, 15                         Kyrgyz, and members of other persecuted groups in 16                         the Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region.
