To improve passenger vessel security and safety, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

APRIL 26, 2017

Ms. MATSUI (for herself, Mr. POE of Texas, and Mr. HIMES) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure

---

A BILL

To improve passenger vessel security and safety, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE; REFERENCES.

4       (a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the 5       “Cruise Passenger Protection Act”.

6       (b) REFERENCES TO TITLE 46, UNITED STATES
7       CODE.—Except as otherwise expressly provided, wherever 8       in this Act an amendment or repeal is expressed in terms 9       of an amendment to, or repeal of, a section or other provi-

1 sion, the reference shall be considered to be made to a 2 section or other provision of title 46, United States Code.

3 SEC. 2. CRUISE VESSEL SUBCHAPTER.

4 Chapter 35 is amended—

5 (1) by inserting before section 3501 the fol-
6 lowing:

7 “SUBCHAPTER I—GENERAL PROVISIONS”;

8 (2) by inserting before section 3507 the fol-
9 lowing:

10 “SUBCHAPTER II—CRUISE VESSELS”;

11 and

12 (3) by redesignating sections 3507 and 3508 as 13 sections 3523 and 3524, respectively.

14 SEC. 3. APPLICATION.

15 Chapter 35, as amended by section 2 of this Act, is 16 further amended by inserting before section 3523 the fol-
17 lowing:

18 “§ 3521. Application

19 (a) IN GENERAL.—This subchapter applies to a 20 passenger vessel that—

21 (1) is authorized to carry at least 250 pas-
22 sengers;

23 (2) has on board sleeping facilities for each 24 passenger;

1               “(3) is on a voyage that embarks or disembarks
2               passengers in the United States; and 3               “(4) is not engaged on a coastwise voyage.

4               “(b) FEDERAL AND STATE VESSELS.—This sub-
5               chapter does not apply to a vessel of the United States
6               operated by the Federal Government or a vessel owned 7               and operated by a State.”.

8 SEC. 4. DEFINITIONS.

9               Chapter 35, as amended by sections 2 and 3 of this 10          Act, is further amended by inserting after section 3521
11          the following:

12 “§ 3522. Definitions

13               “In this subchapter, the following definitions apply: 14               “(1) COMMANDANT.—The term ‘Commandant’
15               means the Commandant of the Coast Guard.

16               “(2) OWNER.—The term ‘owner’ means the 17               owner, charterer, managing operator, master, or 18               other individual in charge of a vessel.”.

19 SEC. 5. BILL OF RIGHTS.

20               Not later than 180 days after the date of enactment
21          of this Act, the Secretary of Transportation shall deter-22          mine whether any of the enumerated rights in the inter-23          national cruise line passenger bill of rights, that was 24          adopted by the members of the Cruise Lines International 25          Association, are enforceable under Federal law.

1     SEC. 6. CRIME REPORTING AND PUBLIC NOTICE.

2         (a) AVAILABILITY OF LOG BOOK AND ENTRIES TO 3     FBI AND OTHER INVESTIGATORS.—Section 3523(g)(1),
4     as redesignated under section 2 of this Act, is further
5     amended—

6             (1) in subparagraph (A), by striking “in a cen-7     tralized location readily accessible to law enforce-8     ment personnel,”; and 9             (2) in subparagraph (B), by striking “make 10   such log book available” and inserting “make the log 11   book and all entries therein available, whether the 12   log book and entries are maintained on board the 13   vessel or at a centralized location off the vessel.”.

14         (b) DEADLINE TO NOTIFY FEDERAL BUREAU OF IN-15     VESTIGATION REGARDING CERTAIN INCIDENTS.—Section
16     3523(g)(3)(A)(i), as redesignated under section 2 of this 17     Act, is further amended—

18             (1) by striking “shall contact” and inserting 19     “subject to subparagraph (C), shall contact”; and 20             (2) by striking “after the occurrence on board 21     the vessel of an incident involving” and inserting “, 22     but not later than 4 hours, after an employee of the 23     vessel is notified of an incident on board the vessel 24     allegedly involving”.

1       (c) REPORTS BEFORE DEPARTURE.—Section
2 3523(g)(3), as redesignated under section 2 of this Act,
3 is further amended by adding at the end the following:

4                 “(C) REPORTS BEFORE DEPARTURE.—If 5                 an employee of a vessel to which this sub-6                 chapter applies is notified of an incident de-7                 scribed under subparagraph (A)(i) while the 8                 vessel is within the admiralty and maritime ju-9                 risdiction of the United States and en route to 10                 a United States port or at a United States port, 11                 the owner of the vessel (or the owner’s des-12                 signee) shall contact the nearest Federal Bureau
13                 of Investigation Field Office or Legal Attache
14                 within the time period specified under subpara-
15                 graph (A)(i) or before the vessel departs port, 16                 whichever is earlier.”.

17       (d) REPORTS TO UNITED STATES CONSULATES.— 18 Section 3523(g)(3), as redesignated under section 2 of 19 this Act and as amended by subsection (c) of this section,
20 is further amended by adding at the end the following:

21                 “(D) REPORTS TO UNITED STATES CON-
22                 SULATES.—If an incident described under sub-
23                 paragraph (A)(i) allegedly involves an offense
24                 by or against a United States national, in addi-
25                 tion to contacting the nearest Federal Bureau

1           of Investigation Field Office or Legal Attaché
2           under that subparagraph, the owner of a vessel
3           to which this subchapter applies (or the owner's 4           designee) shall contact the United States con-
5           sulate at the next port of call within the time
6           period specified under subparagraph (A)(i).”.

7         (e) AVAILABILITY OF SECURITY GUIDE VIA INTER-
8         NET.—Section 3523(c)(1), as redesignated under section 9         2 of this Act, is further amended—

10           (1) in subparagraph (A)—

11           (A) by striking “a guide (referred to in 12           this subsection as the ‘security guide’)” and in-13           serting “a security guide”; and 14           (B) by striking “English, which” and in-15           serting “English, that”; and 16           (2) in subparagraph (C), by striking “on the 17           website of the vessel owner” and inserting “via a 18           prominently accessible link on each Internet website 19           that the vessel owner maintains for passengers to 20           purchase or book trips on any vessel that the vessel 21           owner owns or operates, and to which this sub-22           chapter applies”.

1   SEC. 7. CRIME PREVENTION, DOCUMENTATION, AND RE-
2                   SPONSE REQUIREMENTS.

3       (a) MAINTENANCE AND PLACEMENT OF VIDEO SUR-
4       VEILLANCE EQUIPMENT.—Section 3523(b)(1), as redesign-
5       ated under section 2 of this Act, is further amended—6                   (1) by striking “The owner” and inserting the 7       following:

8                   “(A) IN GENERAL.—The owner”;
9                   (2) by striking “, as determined by the Sec-10       retary”; and 11                   (3) by adding at the end, the following:

12                   “(B) PLACEMENT OF VIDEO SURVEIL-
13       LANCE EQUIPMENT.—With regard to the place-
14       ment of video surveillance equipment on a ves-15       sel under subparagraph (A), the owner shall—

16                   “(i) place video surveillance equipment
17       in each passenger common area where a 18       person has no reasonable expectation of 19       privacy;

20                   “(ii) place video surveillance equip-
21       ment in other areas where a person has no 22       reasonable expectation of privacy; and 23                   “(iii) place video surveillance equip-

24       ment in each area identified under clause
25       (i) or (ii) in a manner that provides opti-26       mum surveillance of that area.”.

1       (b) ACCESS TO VIDEO RECORDS.—Section 3523(b),
2 as redesignated under section 2 of this Act, is further
3 amended—

4               (1) by redesignating paragraph (2) as para-5 graph (3); and

6               (2) in paragraph (3), as redesignated—

7                       (A) by striking “The owner” and inserting
8 the following:

9                       “(A) LAW ENFORCEMENT.—The owner”;

10               and

11               (B) by adding at the end, the following:

12                       “(B) CIVIL ACTIONS.—The owner of a ves-
13 sel to which this subchapter applies shall pro-14 vide to any individual or the individual’s legal 15 representative, upon written request, a copy of 16 all records of video surveillance—

17                       “(i) in which the individual is a sub-18 ject of the video surveillance; and 19                       “(ii) that may provide evidence in a 20 civil action.

21                       “(C) LIMITED ACCESS.—Except as pro-22 vided under subparagraphs (A) and (B), the 23 owner of a vessel to which this subchapter ap-24 plies shall ensure that access to records of video

1 surveillance is limited to the purposes described 2 under this section.”.

3 (c) NOTICE OF VIDEO SURVEILLANCE.—Section 4 3523(b), as redesignated under section 2 of this Act and 5 as amended by subsection (b) of this section, is further 6 amended by inserting before paragraph (3), the following:

7 “(2) NOTICE OF VIDEO SURVEILLANCE.—The 8 owner of a vessel to which this subchapter applies 9 shall provide clear and conspicuous signs on board 10 the vessel notifying the public of the presence of 11 video surveillance equipment.”.

12 (d) RETENTION REQUIREMENTS.—Section 3523(b), 13 as redesignated under section 2 of this Act and as amend-14 ed by subsections (b) and (c) of this section, is further 15 amended by adding at the end, the following:

16 “(4) RETENTION REQUIREMENTS.—

17 “(A) IN GENERAL.—The owner of a vessel
18 to which this subchapter applies shall retain all 19 records of video surveillance for a voyage for 20 not less than 30 days after the completion of 21 the voyage. If an incident described in sub-22 section (g)(3)(A)(i) is alleged and reported to 23 law enforcement, all records of video surveil-
24 lance from the voyage that the Federal Bureau 25 of Investigation determines are relevant shall—

1                     “(i) be provided to the Federal Bu-2 reau of Investigation; and

3                     “(ii) be preserved by the vessel owner 4 for not less than 5 years from the date of 5 the alleged incident.

6                     “(B) INTERIM STANDARDS.—Not later 7 than 180 days after the date of enactment of 8 the Cruise Passenger Protection Act, the Com-
9 mandant, in consultation with the Federal Bu-
10 reau of Investigation, shall promulgate interim
11 standards for the retention of records of video 12 surveillance.

13                     “(C) FINAL STANDARDS.—Not later than 14 1 year after the date of enactment of the Cruise 15 Passenger Protection Act, the Commandant, in 16 consultation with the Federal Bureau of Inves-17 tigation, shall promulgate final standards for 18 the retention of records of video surveillance.

19                     “(D) CONSIDERATIONS.—In promulgating
20 standards under subparagraphs (B) and (C), 21 the Commandant shall—

22                     “(i) consider factors that would aid in 23 the investigation of serious crimes, includ-
24 ing crimes that go unreported until after 25 the completion of a voyage;

1                 “(ii) consider the different types of 2                 video surveillance systems and storage re-3                 quirements in creating standards both for 4                 vessels currently in operation and for ves-
5                 sels newly built;

6                 “(iii) consider privacy, including 7                 standards for permissible access to and 8                 monitoring and use of the records of video 9                 surveillance; and 10                 “(iv) consider technological advance-

11                 ments, including requirements to update 12                 technology.”.

13                 (e) AVAILABILITY OF INCIDENT DATA VIA INTER-14                 NET.—Section 3523(g)(4)(A)(ii), as redesignated under 15                 section 2 of this Act, is further amended—

16                 (1) by redesignating subclauses (V) and (VI) as 17                 subclauses (VI) and (VII), respectively; and 18                 (2) by inserting after subclause (IV) the fol-
19                 lowing:

20                 “(V) identify whether each crime
21                 or alleged crime identified under sub-
22                 clause (IV) was committed or alleg-23                 edly committed against a minor;”.

24                 (f) STUDY.—Not later than 1 year after the date of 25                 enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Transportation,

1 in coordination with the Secretary of the department in 2 which the Coast Guard is operating, the Attorney General, 3 and the heads of other relevant Federal agencies, shall 4 conduct a study to determine the feasibility of having an 5 individual on board each passenger vessel to which sub-6 chapter II of chapter 35 of title 46, United States Code, 7 applies to provide victim support services and related safe-8 ty and security services, and shall report the findings of 9 such study to Congress. The study shall include consider-10 ation of costs, benefits to passengers, jurisdiction, and lo-11 gistics.

12 (g) CRIMINAL ACTIVITY PREVENTION AND RE-
13 SPONSE GUIDE.—Section 3523(c)(1), as redesignated by 14 section 2 of this Act and as amended by section 6(e) of 15 this Act, is further amended by amending subparagraph
16 (B) to read as follows:

17                 “(B) provide a copy of the security guide 18                 to—

19                     “(i) the Secretary of Transportation 20                 for review;

21                     “(ii) the Federal Bureau of Investiga-22                 tion for comment; and 23                     “(iii) a passenger immediately after 24                 the vessel is notified that the passenger is

1                   an alleged victim of an incident described 2                   under subsection (g)(3)(A)(i); and".

3                 (h) MAINTENANCE OF SUPPLIES TO PREVENT SEXU-4     ALLY TRANSMITTED DISEASES.—Section 3523(d)(1), as 5     redesignated by section 2 of this Act, is further amended 6     by inserting “(taking into consideration the length of the 7     voyage and the number of passengers and crewmembers 8     that the vessel can accommodate)” after “a sexual as-9     sault”.

10               (i) CRIME SCENE PRESERVATION TRAINING; CER-
11     TIFICATION OF ORGANIZATIONS BY MARAD.—Section
12     3524(a), as redesignated by section 2 of this Act, is fur-13     ther amended by striking “may certify” and inserting 14     “shall certify”.

15               (j) CREW ACCESS TO PASSENGER STATEROOMS; 16     PROCEDURES AND RESTRICTIONS.—Section 3523(f), as 17     redesignated by section 2 of this Act, is further amend-
18     ed—

19               (1) in paragraph (1)—

20                   (A) by striking “and” at the end of sub-21     paragraph (A); and

22                   (B) by adding at the end the following:
23                   “(C) a system that electronically records
24                   the date, time, and identity of each crew mem-

1           ber accessing each passenger stateroom; and”;

2           and

3           (2) in paragraph (2), by striking “are fully and 4           properly implemented and periodically reviewed.” 5           and inserting “are fully and properly implemented, 6           reviewed annually, and updated as necessary.”.

7           (k) TECHNOLOGY FOR DETECTING PASSENGERS

8 WHO HAVE FALLEN OVERBOARD REQUIRED.—Section

9 3523(a)(1)(D), as redesignated by section 2 of this Act,

10 is further amended by striking “or” and inserting “and”.

11 SEC. 8. PASSENGER VESSEL SECURITY AND SAFETY RE-

12           QUIREMENTS.

13           (a) VESSEL DESIGN, EQUIPMENT, CONSTRUCTION,

14 AND RETROFITTING REQUIREMENTS.—Section 3523(a),

15 as redesignated by section 2 of this Act, is further amend-

16 ed—

17           (1) in paragraph (1)—

18               (A) in the matter preceding subparagraph
19               (A), by striking “to which this subsection ap-20               plies” and inserting “to which this subchapter 21               applies”;

22               (B) in subparagraph (A)—

23                   (i) by striking “The vessel” and in-24                   serting “Each exterior deck of a vessel”; 25                   and

7 (C) in subparagraph (B), by striking
8 “entry doors that include peep holes or other 9 means of visual identification.” and inserting 10 “an entry door that includes a peep hole or 11 other means of visual identification that pro-
12 vides an unobstructed view of the area outside 13 the stateroom or crew cabin and, for purposes
14 of this subparagraph, the addition of an op-15 tional privacy cover on the interior side of the 16 entry shall not in and of itself constitute an ob-17 struction.”; and

21                 “(A) may waive a requirement under para-
22                 graph (1) as the Secretary determines nec-
23                 essary;

24                   “(B) shall maintain a record of each waiver 25                   made under subparagraph (A); and

1               “(C) shall include in such record the jus-
2               tification for the waiver.”.

3               (b) MEDICAL STANDARDS.—

4               (1) IN GENERAL.—Section 3523, as redesign-
5               ated by section 2 of this Act, is further amended—6                       (A) by striking subsections (k) and (l); and 7                       (B) by inserting after subsection (j) the 8               following:

9               “(k) MEDICAL STANDARDS.—

10               “(1) IN GENERAL.—The owner of a vessel to 11               which this subchapter applies shall ensure that—

12                       “(A) a physician is always present and 13               available to treat any passengers who may be 14               on board the vessel in the event of an emer-15               gency situation;

16                       “(B) there is a sufficient number of qual-
17               fied medical staff on board the vessel to treat
18               the number of passengers who may be on board 19               the vessel, as determined by the Secretary by 20               regulation;

21                       “(C) if a United States citizen dies on 22               board the vessel and the citizen’s next of kin re-23               quests that the citizen’s body return to the 24               United States on board the vessel, such request 25               is granted;

1                 “(D) every crew member on board the ves-2         sel has received basic life support training and 3         is certified in cardiopulmonary resuscitation;

4                 “(E) automated external defibrillators 5         are—

6                         “(i) placed throughout the vessel in 7         clearly designated locations; and 8                         “(ii) available for passenger access in 9         the event of an emergency; and 10                 “(F) the initial safety briefing given to the 11         passengers on board the vessel includes—

12                         “(i) the location of the vessel’s med-
13         ical facilities;

14                         “(ii) the appropriate steps passengers 15         should follow during a medical emergency;

16                         “(iii) the location and proper use of 17         automated external defibrillators; and 18                         “(iv) the proper way to report an inci-19         dent or to seek security assistance in the 20         event of a medical emergency.

21                 “(2) PHYSICIAN DEFINED.—In this subsection 22         the term ‘physician’ means a medical doctor who—

23                         “(A) has at least 3 years of post-graduate, 24         post-registration experience in general and 25         emergency medicine; or

1                 “(B) is board certified in emergency medi-
2                 cine, family medicine, or internal medicine.”.

3                 (2) APPLICATION.—The amendment made by 4                 paragraph (1)(B) shall apply on and after the date 5                 that is 180 days after the date of the enactment of 6                 this Act.

7                 (c) DEFINITION OF EXTERIOR DECK.—Section 3523,
8                 as redesignated by section 2 of this Act and as amended 9                 by subsection (b) of this section, is further amended by 10                 inserting after subsection (k) the following:

11                 “(l) DEFINITION OF EXTERIOR DECK.—In this sec-12                 tion, the term ‘exterior deck’ means any exterior weather 13                 deck on which a passenger may be present, including pas-14                 senger stateroom balconies, exterior promenades on pas-15                 senger decks, muster stations, and similar exterior weath-16                 er deck areas.”.

17 SEC. 9. ENFORCEMENT.

18                 (a) INFORMATION SHARING.—

19                 (1) IN GENERAL.—To the extent not prohibited 20                 by other law, the head of a designated agency shall 21                 make available to another head of a designated 22                 agency any information necessary to carry out the 23                 provisions of subchapter II of chapter 35 of title 46, 24                 United States Code. The provision by the head of a 25                 designated agency of any information under this

1 subsection to another head of a designated agency 2 shall not constitute a waiver, or otherwise affect, any 3 privilege any agency or person may claim with re-
4 spect to that information under Federal or State 5 law.

6 (2) DEFINITION OF HEAD OF A DESIGNATED
7 AGENCY.—In this subsection, the term “head of a 8 designated agency” means the Secretary of Trans-9 portation, the Secretary of Homeland Security, or 10 the Attorney General.

11 (b) PASSENGER VESSEL SECURITY AND SAFETY RE-12 QUIREMENTS; DENIAL OF ENTRY.—Section 3523(h), as
