A BILL

To amend the Ethics in Government Act of 1978 to require individuals nominated or appointed to Senate-confirmed positions or to positions of a confidential or policymaking character to disclose certain types of contributions made or solicited by, or on behalf of, the individuals.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Conflicts from Political 5       Fundraising Act of 2017”.

6       SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7       Congress finds the following:

1           (1) Public confidence in the Federal Govern-
2           ment is based on the expectation that officers and 3           employees will discharge their duties impartially, and 4           avoid either actual conflicts of interest or the ap-
5           pearance thereof.

6           (2) The risk of an actual conflict of interest, or 7           the appearance thereof, arises when a nominee or 8           appointee to a Senate-confirmed position or an indi-
9           vidual in a position of a confidential or policymaking
10          character has previously donated to, solicited for, or 11          received funds from a political action committee or 12          entity organized under section 501(c)(4) or section
13          501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

14          (3) Since the 2010 decision by the Supreme 15          Court of the United States in Citizens United v.
16          Federal Election Commission, spending by corpora-
17          tions subject to Federal laws and regulations has in-18          creased dramatically.

19          (4) While some corporate political spending is 20          done publicly, contributions to entities organized
21          under section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue
22          Code of 1986 need not be disclosed, making this 23          spending effectively anonymous. The risk of an ac-
24          tual conflict of interest, or the appearance thereof,

1 arises whether political spending is public or anony-
2 mous.

3 (5) Current financial disclosure requirements do
4 not require filers to report funds they have donated 5 to, solicited for, or received from political action
6 committees or entities organized under section
7 501(c)(4) or section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Rev-
8 enue Code of 1986.

9 (6) Apparent or actual conflicts of interest are 10 best ameliorated through public disclosure of this ac-
11 tivity to the Office of Government Ethics so the ap-
12 parent or actual conflicts can be addressed in ethics
13 agreements negotiated between the filer and the 14 agency in which the filer will serve.

15 SEC. 3. DISCLOSURE OF CERTAIN TYPES OF CONTRIBU-
16 TIONS.
