

114TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 2992

AN ACT

To award a Congressional Gold Medal, collectively, to the U.S. Merchant Marine of World War II, in recognition of their dedicated and vital service during World War II.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Merchant Marine of 3 World War II Congressional Gold Medal Act”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 The Congress finds the following:

6 (1) 2015 marks the 70th anniversary of the Al-
7 lied victory in World War II and the restoration of 8 peacetime across the European and Pacific theaters.

9 (2) The United States Merchant Marine was in-
10 tegral in providing the link between domestic pro-
11 duction and the fighting forces overseas, providing 12 combat equipment, fuel, food, commodities, and raw 13 materials to troops stationed overseas.

14 (3) Fleet Admiral Ernest J. King acknowledged
15 the indispensability of the Merchant Marine to the 16 victory in a 1945 letter stating that without their 17 support, “the Navy could not have accomplished its 18 mission”.

19 (4) President and former Supreme Commander
20 of the Allied Forces, Dwight D. Eisenhower, ac-21 knowledged that “through the prompt delivery of 22 supplies and equipment to our armed forces over-
23 seas, and of cargoes representing economic and mili-
24 tary aid to friendly nations, the American Merchant
25 Marine has effectively helped to strengthen the 26 forces of freedom throughout the world”.

1 (5) Military missions and war planning were 2 contingent upon the availability of resources and
3 that the United States Merchant Marine played a
4 vital role in this regard, ensuring the efficient and 5 reliable transoceanic transport of military equipment
6 as well as both military and civilian personnel.

7 (6) The United States Merchant Marine pro-
8 vided for the successful transport of resources and 9 personnel despite consistent and ongoing exposure to 10 enemy combatants from both the air and the sea,
11 such as enemy bomber squadrons, submarines, and 12 mines.

13 (7) The efforts of the United States Merchant
14 Marine were not without sacrifices as they bore a 15 higher per capita casualty rate than any other
16 branch of the military during the war.

17 (8) The United States Merchant Marine proved 18 to be an instrumental asset on untold occasions, par-
19 ticipating in every landing operation by the United 20 States Marine Corps from Guadalcanal to Iwo Jima
21 as well as providing, for instance, the bulk tonnage
22 of material necessary for the invasion of Normandy 23 which “would not have been possible without the 24 Merchant Marine”, as a 1944 New York Times arti-
25 cle observed.

1 (9) In also assessing their performance, General
2 Dwight D. Eisenhower stated, “every man in this
3 Allied command is quick to express his admiration
4 for the loyalty, courage, and fortitude of the officers
5 and men of the Merchant Marine. We count upon 6 their efficiency and their utter devotion to duty as 7 we do our own; they have never failed us”.

8 (10) During a September 1944 speech, Presi-
9 dent Franklin D. Roosevelt stated, the Merchant
10 Marine has “delivered the goods when and where 11 needed in every theater of operations and across 12 every ocean in the biggest, the most difficult, and 13 dangerous transportation job ever undertaken. As 14 time goes on, there will be greater public under-15 standing of our merchant fleet’s record during this 16 war.”.

17 (11) The feats and accomplishments of the 18 Merchant Marine are deserving of broader public
19 recognition.

20 (12) The United States will be forever grateful
21 and indebted to the U.S. Merchant Marine for their 22 effective, reliable, and courageous transport of goods
23 and resources in enemy territory throughout thea-
24 ters of every variety in World War II; that these 25 goods and resources saved thousands of lives and en-

1 abled the Allied Powers to claim victory in World
2 War II.

3 (13) The Congressional Gold Medal will be an
4 appropriate way to shed further light on the service
5 of the Merchant Marine in World War II and the in-
6 strumental role they played in winning World War
7 II.

8 SEC. 3. CONGRESSIONAL GOLD MEDAL.
