

116TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 4369

To expand access to apprenticeships and pre-apprenticeships among certain populations, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

SEPTEMBER 17, 2019

Mr. WALKER (for himself, Mr. BALDERSON, Mr. SPANO, Mrs. RODGERS of Washington, Mr. WRIGHT, Mr. RUTHERFORD, Mr. MEUSER, and Mr. CRAWFORD) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Education and Labor, and in addition to the Committees on the Judiciary, Armed Services, and Veterans' Affairs, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To expand access to apprenticeships and pre-apprenticeships among certain populations, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. FINDINGS.

4 Congress finds the following:

5 (1) Nationwide, there are over 585,000 appren-
6 tices currently obtaining the skills they need to suc-

1 ceed, while earning the wages they need to build fi-
2 nancial security.

3 (2) On June 15, 2017, President Trump signed
4 an Executive order to double Federal spending on
5 the Apprenticeship USA program to $200 million a
6 year, with the money allocated from existing job
7 training programs.

8 (3) Businesses from across the country signed
9 the “Pledge to American Workers”, committing to 10 provide 3,800,000 workers with apprenticeship op-
11 portunities.

12 (4) Nationally, 91 percent of United States ap-
13 prentices are employed after completing their pro-
14 grams, with an average starting wage above
15 $60,000.

16 (5) The Strengthening Career and Technical
17 Education for the 21st Century Act was signed into 18 law in July 2018 to promote access to workplace de-
19 velopment programs such as apprenticeship pro-
20 grams.

21 (6) On December 21, 2018, the First Step Act
22 of 2018 was signed into law, a landmark criminal
23 justice reform to promote hope and opportunity for 24 incarcerated individuals.

1 (7) Former inmates often face a significant in-
2 ability to enter the workforce due to a lack of rel-
3 evant training, negatively impacting their family and
4 future generations.

5 (8) Sixty percent of the 650,000 inmates re-
6 leased every year are unemployed one year after they 7 are released.

8 (9) Congress must continue its work to expand
9 all forms of apprenticeship opportunities to ensure
10 all American workers have access to the necessary
11 workforce development tools.

12 SEC. 2. EXPANDING ACCESS TO APPRENTICESHIPS.

13 (a) PROMOTION OF ALL FORMS OF APPRENTICE-
14 SHIPS AND PRE-APPRENTICESHIPS TO CERTAIN POPU-
15 LATIONS.—The Secretary of Defense, the Secretary of 16 Labor, the Secretary of Education, and the Attorney Gen-
17 eral, shall, in consultation with each other and consistent
18 with applicable law, promote all forms of apprenticeships
19 and pre-apprenticeships for—

20 (1) high school students and participants in the 21 Job Corps of the Department of Labor;

22 (2) persons currently or formerly incarcerated;
23 (3) persons not currently attending high school
24 or an accredited post-secondary educational institu-
25 tion; and

1 (4) for members of armed services and veterans.

3 (b) PROMOTION OF APPRENTICESHIPS AND PRE-APPRENTICESHIPS TO CERTAIN INDUSTRIES.—The Secretary of Commerce and the Secretary of Labor shall promote apprenticeships to business leaders across critical industry sectors, including manufacturing, infrastructure, cybersecurity, health care, and construction.

9 (c) APPRENTICESHIP DEFINED.—For the purposes of this Act, the term “apprenticeship” means an arrangement that includes a paid-work component and an educational or instructional component, wherein an individual obtains workplace-relevant knowledge and skills.
