1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress makes the following findings:

3 (1) According to the United Nations, approxi-
 4 mately 1 out of every 3 women in the world has been 5 beaten, coerced into sex, or otherwise abused in her
 6 lifetime. The World Health Organization reports
 7 that in some countries, up to 70 percent of women
 8 report having been victims of domestic violence at 9 some stage in their lives.

10 (2) According to the United Nations, engaging
 11 both men and women in all efforts to end violence
 12 against women and girls internationally should be a

1 priority. In recognition of this, United Nations Sec-
2 retary-General Ban Ki-moon launched a multi-year
3 campaign in 2009 to end violence against women
4 and pledge resources to engage male leaders and 5 mobilize men and boys.

6 (3) Violence against women dramatically im-
7 pedes progress in meeting global health goals, in-8 cluding efforts to stem maternal mortality and the 9 spread of HIV/AIDS. Approximately 1 in 4 women 10 are abused during pregnancy, which, according to 11 the World Health Organization, has been linked to 12 miscarriage, pre-term labor, low birth weight and 13 fetal distress or death. Women who have experienced
14 violence are also at higher risk for contracting HIV,
15 and women living with HIV may be up to three 16 times more likely to experience violence than HIV-17 negative women. Fear of violence also prevents 18 women from accessing HIV/AIDS information and 19 receiving treatment and counseling.

20 (4) Women's increased access to economic op-
21 portunities is crucial to the prevention of and re-
22 sponse to domestic and sexual violence. Both micro-
23 finance-based interventions and increased asset con-
24 trol have been shown to reduce levels of intimate

1 partner violence in addition to providing economic 2 independence for survivors.

3 (5) Displaced, refugee, and stateless women and 4 girls in humanitarian emergencies, conflict settings,
5 and natural disasters face extreme violence and 6 threats because of power inequities, including being 7 forced to exchange sex for food and humanitarian 8 supplies, and being at increased risk of rape, sexual 9 exploitation, and abuse.

10 (6) Rape and sexual assault against women and 11 girls are used to torture, intimidate, and terrorize
12 women and their communities.

13 SEC. 3. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

14 It is the policy of the United States to—

15 (1) systematically integrate and coordinate ef-
16 forts to prevent and respond to violence against 17 women and girls internationally into United States
18 foreign policy and foreign assistance programs, and 19 to expand implementation of effective practices and 20 programs;

21 (2) promote women’s political, economic, edu-
22 cational, social, cultural, civil, and human rights and 23 opportunities throughout the world;

24 (3) support and build the capacity of indigenous 25 nongovernmental organizations that are working to

5 partnership with such nongovernmental organiza-
6 tions;

8 women and girls internationally through multisecc-
9 toral methods, working at individual, family, commu-
10 nity, local, national, and international levels and in-
11 corporating service, prevention, training, and advo-
12 cacy activities and economic, education, health, legal,
13 and protective intervention services;

14 (5) enhance training and other prevention and 15 response to violence against women and girls inter-
16 nationally in humanitarian relief, conflict, and post-
17 conflict settings;

18 (6) enhance training by United States personnel
19 of professional foreign military and police forces and 20 judicial officials to include specific and thorough in-
21 struction on preventing and responding to violence
22 against women and girls internationally;

23 (7) increase communication and cooperation
24 with nongovernmental organizations with dem-
25 onstrated experience in empowerment of women and

1 combating violence against women and girls inter-
2 nationally, including consulting with such organiza-
3 tions during strategic planning exercises;

9 settings appropriately report on and respond to vio-
10 lence against women and girls internationally; and

12 novative efforts at the United Nations to address vi-
13 olence against women and girls internationally, par-
14 ticularly through urging the United Nations Sec-
15 retary-General and United Nations member states to 16 fully implement the provisions of United Nations Se-
