A BILL

To award a Congressional gold medal to the 5307th Composite Unit (Provisional), commonly known as “Merrill’s Marauders”, in recognition of their bravery and outstanding service in the jungles of Burma during World War II.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Merrill’s Marauders 5 Congressional Gold Medal Act”.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress makes the following findings:

3 (1) In August 1943, President Franklin D.
4 Roosevelt and other allied leaders proposed the cre-
5 ation of an American ground unit that would engage 6 in a “long-range penetration mission” in Japanese-
7 occupied Burma. This unit’s mission would be to cut 8 off Japanese communications and supply lines, and 9 capture Japanese-held airfield and town of 10 Myitkyina.

11 (2) President Roosevelt issued a call for volun-
12 teers for “a dangerous and hazardous mission”, the 13 call was answered by approximately 3,000 American 14 soldiers. The unit was officially designated as the 15 “5307th Composite Unit (Provisional)” Code Name:
16 “Galahad”. Later it became known as “Merrill’s 17 Marauders” named after its leader, Brigadier Gen-
18 eral Frank Merrill.

19 (3) In February 1944, the Marauders began 20 their approximately 1,000-mile trek through the 21 dense Burmese jungle. The Marauders had no artil-
22 lery support and carried their supplies on their 23 backs or the pack saddles of mules.

24 (4) Over the course of their 5-month trek to 25 Myitkyina, the Marauders fought victoriously

1 against larger Japanese forces through 5 major and 2 30 minor engagements.

3 (5) During their march to Myitkyina, the Ma-
4 rauders faced hunger and disease that were exacer-
5 bated by inadequate aerial resupply drops. Malaria, 6 typhus, and dysentery inflicted more casualties on 7 the Marauders than the Japanese.

8 (6) By August 1944, the Marauders accom-
9 plished their mission, successfully disrupting Japa-
10 nese supply and communication lines, taking the 11 town of Myitkyina and the Myitkyina airstrip, the 12 only all-weather airstrip in Northern Burma.

13 (7) After taking Myitkyina, only 130 Maraude-
14 rs out of the original 2,750 were fit for duty. All
15 remaining Marauders still in action were evacuated 16 to hospitals due to tropical diseases, exhaustion, and 17 malnutrition.

18 (8) For their bravery and accomplishments, the 19 Marauders were awarded the “Distinguished Unit 20 Citation”, later redesignated as the “Presidential 21 Unit Citation”. Each Marauder also earned a 22 Bronze Star for his service.

23 (9) Though Merrill’s Marauders were oper-
24 ational for only a few months, the legacy of their 25 bravery is honored by the United States Army

1 through the modern day 75th Ranger Regiment,
2 which traces its lineage directly to the 5307th Com-
3 posite Unit.

4 SEC. 3. CONGRESSIONAL GOLD MEDAL.

8 ers.

12 bronze of the gold medal struck under section 3, at a price
13 sufficient to cover the costs of the medals, including labor,
