6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

8 (1) The State of Israel is under grave threat
9 and frequent attack from missiles fired indiscrimi-

1 nately by Hamas terrorists on its southern border
2 and Hezbollah terrorists on its northern border.

3 (2) The Jewish State of Israel, as a close ally
4 of the United States, requires and deserves all nec-

6 criminate attacks on its citizens.

7 (3) The United States remains committed to 8 Israel's qualitative military edge, including its ad-
9 vantage over non-state actors such as Hezbollah and 10 Hamas, which boast increasingly sophisticated and 11 powerful weapons as a result of support from Iran
12 and other state actors.

13 (4) Regional stability and lasting peace between 14 Israelis and Palestinians requires that Israel can en-15 sure the safety of its population against missile and 16 other threats.

17 (5) The United States can help to advance the 18 cause of peace by supporting Israel's ability to de-
19 fend itself against missile and other threats.

20 (6) The State of Israel announced in January 21 2010 the successful testing of its Iron Dome anti-22 missile defense system which is capable of inter-23 cepting short-range missiles launched by militants in 24 Gaza and South Lebanon.

1 (7) In the face of threats from its neighbors
2 and non-state actors, Israel historically has re-
3 quested it be given the means to defend itself, by 4 itself.

5 (8) President Barack Obama has stated: “Our 6 commitment to Israel’s security is unshakable.”.

7 (9) Vice President Joe Biden has stated:
8 “From my experience, the one precondition for 9 progress is that the rest of the world knows this—10 there is no space between the U.S. and Israel when 11 it comes to security—none.”.

12 (10) Secretary of Defense Robert M. Gates has 13 stated: “President Obama has affirmed, the United 14 States commitment to Israel’s security is 15 unshakable, and our defense relationship is stronger
16 than ever, to the mutual benefit of both nations.”.
