A BILL

To require the imposition of sanctions with respect to Chinese officials determined to be involved in the Mexican fentanyl trade, and for other purposes.

1       *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,*

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Countering CCP
5 Fentanyl Trafficking Act”.

1     SEC. 2. IMPOSITION OF SANCTIONS WITH RESPECT TO CHI-

2                 NESE OFFICIALS INVOLVED IN THE MEXICAN
3                 FENTANYL TRADE.

4             (a) IMPOSITION OF SANCTIONS.—The President shall 5     impose the sanctions described in subsection (c) with re-6     spect to each foreign person included in the most recent 7     list submitted pursuant to subsection (b).

8             (b) LIST OF PERSONS.—

9                 (1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 60 days after 10   the date of enactment of this Act, the President
11   shall submit to the appropriate congressional com-
12   mittees a list of officials of the Government of the 13   People's Republic of China who the President deter-
14   mines as having assisted in or approved with knowl-
15   edge of the recipient, the transportation of pill press-
16   es, fentanyl products, or fentanyl precursors to 1 or 17   more Mexican drug cartels.

18                 (2) UPDATES OF LISTS.—The President shall 19   submit to the appropriate congressional committees
20   an updated list under paragraph (1)—

21                     (A) not later than 180 days after the date
22   of enactment of this Act and annually there-
23   after for 10 years; or

24                     (B) as new information becomes available.

1                             (3) FORM.—The list required by paragraph (1) 2       shall be submitted in unclassified form, but may in-
3       clude a classified annex.

4                             (c) SANCTIONS DESCRIBED.—The sanctions de-5       scribed in this subsection are the following:

6                             (1) BLOCKING OF PROPERTY.—The President
7       shall exercise all of the powers granted to the Presi-
8       dent by the International Emergency Economic 9       Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.) (except that 10      the requirements of section 202 of such Act shall 11      not apply) to the extent necessary to block and pro-12      hibit all transactions in property and interests in 13      property of the person if such property and interests
14      in property are in the United States, come within 15      the United States, or are or come within the posses-
16      sion or control of a United States person.

17                             (2) INADMISSIBILITY OF CERTAIN INDIVID-
18      UALS.—

19                             (A) INELIGIBILITY FOR VISAS, ADMISSION, 20       OR PAROLE.—A foreign person included in the 21       most recent list submitted pursuant to sub-22       section (b) is—

23                             (i) inadmissible to the United States;

(ii) ineligible to receive a visa or other documentation to enter the United States; and

(iii) otherwise ineligible to be admitted or paroled into the United States or to receive any other benefit under the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1101 et seq.).

1       tions, signed at Lake Success June 26, 1947, and 2       entered into force November 21, 1947, between the 3       United Nations and the United States, or other ap-4       plicable international obligations of the United 5       States.

6       (d) PENALTIES.—The penalties provided for in sub-
7       sections (b) and (c) of section 206 of the International 8       Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1705) shall 9       apply to a person who violates, attempts to violate, con-
10      spires to violate, or causes a violation of regulations pro-
11      mulgated to carry out subsection (a) to the same extent
12      that such penalties apply to a person who commits an un-
13      lawful act described in section 206(a) of that Act.

14       (e) EXCEPTION TO COMPLY WITH NATIONAL SECU-
15      RITY.—The following activities shall be exempt from sanc-
16      tions under this section:

17           (1) Activities subject to the reporting require-
18       ments under title V of the National Security Act of 19       1947 (50 U.S.C. 3091 et seq.).

20           (2) Any authorized intelligence or law enforce-
21       ment activities of the United States.

22       (f) WAIVER.—The President may, on a case-by-case
23       basis, waive the imposition of any sanction under this sec-
24       tion if the President—

1                             (1) determines that such a waiver is in the na-
2                             tional interest of the United States; and

3                             (2) not later than 120 days after the date on 4                             which the President imposes the sanctions described 5                             in subsection (a), and every 120 days thereafter
6                             until the date of termination under subsection (g), 7                             the President shall submit to the appropriate con-8                             gressional committees a report on the extent to 9                             which the President has used the waiver authority 10                            under paragraph (1) during the period covered by 11                            that report.

12                         (g) SUNSET.—The authority to impose sanctions 13                         under this section shall terminate on the date that is 10
14                         years after the date of enactment of this Act.

15                         (h) APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES
16                         DEFINED.—In this Act, the term “appropriate congres-17                         sional committees” means—

18                             (1) the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the 19                             House of Representatives; and 20                             (2) the Committee on Foreign Relations of the 21                             Senate.
