A BILL

To regulate monitoring of electronic communications between an incarcerated person in a Bureau of Prisons facility and that person's attorney or other legal representative, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2   tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3   SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Effective Assistance
5   of Counsel in the Digital Era Act”.

6   SEC. 2. ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN AN IN-

7              CARCERATED PERSON AND THE PERSON’S
8              ATTORNEY.

9       (a) PROHIBITION ON MONITORING.—Not later than 10 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the 11 Attorney General shall create a program or system, or 12 modify any program or system that exists on the date of 13 enactment of this Act, through which an incarcerated per-14 son sends or receives an electronic communication, to ex-
15 clude from monitoring the contents of any privileged elec-
16 tronic communication. In the case that the Attorney Gen-
17 eral creates a program or system in accordance with this 18 subsection, the Attorney General shall, upon implementing 19 such system, discontinue using any program or system
20 that exists on the date of enactment of this Act through 21 which an incarcerated person sends or receives a privileged 22 electronic communication, except that any program or sys-23 tem that exists on such date may continue to be used for 24 any other electronic communication.

1       (b) RETENTION OF CONTENTS.—A program or sys-
2 tem or a modification to a program or system under sub-
3 section (a) may allow for retention by the Bureau of Pris-
4 ons of, and access by an incarcerated person to, the con-
5 tents of electronic communications, including the contents
6 of privileged electronic communications, of the person
7 until the date on which the person is released from prison.

8       (c) ATTORNEY-CLIENT PRIVILEGE.—Attorney-client
9 privilege, and the protections and limitations associated 10 with such privilege (including the crime fraud exception),
11 applies to electronic communications sent or received
12 through the program or system established or modified
13 under subsection (a).

14       (d) ACCESSING RETAINED CONTENTS.—Contents re-
15 tained under subsection (b) may only be accessed by a per-16 son other than the incarcerated person for whom such con-
17 tents are retained under the following circumstances:

18           (1) ATTORNEY GENERAL.—The Attorney Gen-
19 eral may only access retained contents if necessary
20 for the purpose of creating and maintaining the pro-
21 gram or system, or any modification to the program
22 or system, through which an incarcerated person
23 sends or receives electronic communications. The At-
24 torney General may not review retained contents
25 that are accessed pursuant to this paragraph.

1                         (2) INVESTIGATIVE AND LAW ENFORCEMENT
2                         OFFICERS.—

3                         (A) WARRANT.—

4                                     (i) IN GENERAL.—Retained contents
5                             may only be accessed by an investigative or 6                             law enforcement officer pursuant to a war-
7                             rant issued by a court pursuant to the pro-
8                             cedures described in the Federal Rules of 9                             Criminal Procedure.

10                                   (ii) APPROVAL.—No application for a 11                             warrant may be made to a court without 12                             the express approval of a United States
13                             Attorney or an Assistant Attorney General.

14                         (B) PRIVILEGED INFORMATION.—

15                                     (i) REVIEW.—Before retained con-
16                             tents may be accessed pursuant to a war-
17                             rant obtained under subparagraph (A),
18                             such contents shall be reviewed by a 19                             United States Attorney to ensure that 20                             privileged electronic communications are 21                             not accessible.

22                                     (ii) BARRING PARTICIPATION.—A
23                             United States Attorney who reviews re-24                             tained contents pursuant to clause (i) shall 25                             be barred from—

1 (I) participating in a legal pro-
2 ceeding in which an individual who
3 sent or received an electronic commu-
4 nication from which such contents are 5 retained under subsection (b) is a de-
6 fendant; or

7 (II) sharing the retained contents
8 with an attorney who is participating
9 in such a legal proceeding.

10 (3) MOTION TO SUPPRESS.—In a case in which 11 retained contents have been accessed in violation of 12 this subsection, a court may suppress evidence ob-
13 tained or derived from access to such contents upon 14 motion of the defendant.

15 (e) DEFINITIONS.—In this Act—

16 (1) the term “agent of an attorney or legal rep-
17 resentative” means any person employed by or con-18 tracting with an attorney or legal representative, in-19 cluding law clerks, interns, investigators, paraprofes-
20 sionals, and administrative staff;

21 (2) the term “contents” has the meaning given
22 such term in 2510 of title 18, United States Code;

23 (3) the term “electronic communication” has 24 the meaning given such term in section 2510 of title

1       18, United States Code, and includes the Trust
2       Fund Limited Inmate Computer System;

3               (4) the term “monitoring” means accessing the 4       contents of an electronic communication at any time
5       after such communication is sent;

6               (5) the term “incarcerated person” means any 7       individual in the custody of the Bureau of Prisons
8       or the United States Marshals Service who has been 9       charged with or convicted of an offense against the 10      United States, including such an individual who is 11      imprisoned in a State institution; and 12               (6) the term “privileged electronic communica-

13      tion” means—

14               (A) any electronic communication between 15       an incarcerated person and a potential, current, 16       or former attorney or legal representative of 17       such a person; and

18               (B) any electronic communication between 19       an incarcerated person and the agent of an at-
20       torney or legal representative described in sub-
21       paragraph (A).
