A BILL

To seek the establishment of and contributions to an International Fund for Israeli-Palestinian Peace.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “International Fund
5 for Israeli-Palestinian Peace Authorization Act of 2014”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.

7 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

8 (1) Peaceful co-existence in the Middle East be-
9 tween Israelis and Palestinians, and between Mus-
10 lims, Christians, Jews, and those of all backgrounds

1 is in the interests of the United States, Israel, the 2 Palestinian people, and the world.

3 (2) While the United States and its inter-
4 national allies continue to support diplomatic and 5 political negotiations between the representatives of 6 the parties to the conflict as well as others, in the 7 long run such efforts require broad popular support
8 among peoples in order to succeed. In order to 9 achieve lasting peace in the region, the people who 10 live there must, over time, sustain any potential
11 high-level agreements.

12 (3) Through many independent individual and 13 nongovernmental activities, tens of thousands of peo-
14 ples of different backgrounds are already working 15 together to build better relations between peoples,
16 through people-to-people coexistence and trust-build-
17 ing measures, activities, and other cooperative ef-
18 forts.

19 (4) By working cooperatively on shared goals
20 and addressing mutual understanding, participants
21 in such activities, including youth, can come to re-
22 ject violence and understand the promise of peaceful 23 coexistence.

24 (5) Through support for people-to-people ex-25 changes in the region and joint economic initiatives,

1 millions of ordinary citizens affected by this conflict
2 can assist in building support for lasting peace.

3 (6) Working together, the United States, coun-
4 tries around the world, and the private sector can 5 help sustain support for peace with the establish-6 ment and funding of an independent International 7 Fund for Israeli-Palestinian Peace (referred to in 8 this Act as the “International Fund”), to promote 9 and support contact, cooperation, dialogue, shared 10 community building, peaceful coexistence, joint eco-
11 nomic development, and reconciliation between 12 Israelis and Palestinians.

13 (7) United States and international support for 14 grassroots people-to-people efforts can help serve as 15 an antidote to false propaganda by terrorist groups.

16 (8) The International Fund shall serve as a co-
17 ordinating body offering expertise and support, ad-
18 hering to best practices for governance, trans-
19 parency, and accountability. The International Fund
20 will be an ongoing presence and catalyst for reject-21 ing violence and building broad public support for 22 sustaining peace in the region. The International 23 Fund is not intended to be a political forum, but a 24 grant-making body to facilitate enduring people-to-25 people relationships.

1 (b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this Act are as fol-
2 lows:

3 (1) To urge the President to make every effort,
