

114TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 585

To amend the Endangered Species Act of 1973 to establish a procedure for approval of certain settlements.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JANUARY 28, 2015

Mr. FLORES (for himself, Mr. CARTER of Texas, Mr. CONAWAY, Mr. GOSAR, Mr. OLSON, Mr. PEARCE, and Mr. THORNBERRY) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Natural Resources, and in addition to the Committee on the Judiciary, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To amend the Endangered Species Act of 1973 to establish a procedure for approval of certain settlements.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled

3 SECTION 1 DEFINITIONS

4 Section 3 of the Endangered Species Act of 1973 (16 5 U.S.C. 1532) is amended.

<sup>6</sup> (1) by redesignating

7 (A) paragraphs. (

graphs (2) through (5), respectively;

1                         (B) paragraphs (5) through (10) as para-2                         graphs (7) through (12), respectively; and

3                         (C) paragraphs (12) through (21) as para-
4                         graphs (13) through (22), respectively;

5                         (2) by adding before paragraph (2) (as so re-6                         designated) the following:

7                         “(1) AFFECTED PARTIES.—The term ‘affected 8                         party’ means any person, including a business enti-9                         ty, or any State, tribal government, or local subdivi-10                         sion the rights of which may be affected by a deter-11                         mination made under section 4(a) in a suit brought 12                         under section 11(g)(1)(C).”; and 13                         (3) by adding after paragraph (5) (as so redes-14                         ignated) the following:

15                         “(6) COVERED SETTLEMENT.—The term ‘cov-16                         ered settlement’ means a consent decree or a settle-17                         ment agreement in an action brought under section 18                         11(g)(1)(C).”.

19                         SEC. 2. INTERVENTION; APPROVAL OF COVERED SETTLE-
20                         MENT.

21                         Section 11(g) of the Endangered Species Act of 1973
22                         (16 U.S.C. 1540) is amended—

23                         (1) in paragraph (3), by adding at the end the 24                         following:

1                 “(C) PUBLISHING COMPLAINT; INTERVEN-
2                 TION.—

3                 “(i) PUBLISHING COMPLAINT.—

4                 “(I) IN GENERAL.—Not later 5                 than 30 days after the date on which 6                 the plaintiff serves the defendant with 7                 the complaint in an action brought 8                 under paragraph (1)(C) in accordance 9                 with Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of 10                 Civil Procedure, the Secretary of the 11                 Interior shall publish the complaint in 12                 a readily accessible manner, including 13                 electronically.

14                 “(II) FAILURE TO MEET DEAD-15                 LINE.—The failure of the Secretary to 16                 meet the 30-day deadline described in 17                 subclause (I) shall not be the basis for 18                 an action under paragraph (1)(C).

19                 “(ii) MOTION TO INTERVENE.—

20                 “(I) IN GENERAL.—After the end 21                 of the 30-day period described in 22                 clause (i), each affected party shall be 23                 given a reasonable opportunity to 24                 move to intervene in the action de-25                 scribed in clause (i), until the end of 1                         which a party may not file a motion 2                         for a consent decree or to dismiss the 3                         case pursuant to a settlement agree-

4                         ment.

5                                 “(II) REBUTTABLE PRESUMP-6                         TION.—In considering a motion to in-7                         tervene by any affected party, the 8                         court shall presume, subject to rebut-
9                         tal, that the interests of that party 10                         would not be represented adequately 11                         by the parties to the action described 12                         in clause (i).

13                                 “(iii) REFERRAL TO ALTERNATIVE
14                         DISPUTE RESOLUTION.—If the court 15                         grants a motion to intervene in the action, 16                         the court shall refer the action to facilitate 17                         settlement discussions to—

18                                 “(I) the mediation program of 19                         the court; or 20                                 “(II) a magistrate judge.

21                                 “(iv) PARTIES INCLUDED IN SETTLE-22                         MENT DISCUSSIONS.—The settlement dis-23                         cussions described in clause (i) shall in-24                         clude each plaintiff, defendant agency, and 25                         intervenor.”;

1                             (2) by striking paragraph (4) and inserting the 2                             following:

3                             “(4) LITIGATION COSTS.—

4                             “(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in 5                             subparagraph (B), the court, in issuing any 6                             final order in any suit brought under paragraph 7                             (1), may award costs of litigation (including 8                             reasonable attorney and expert witness fees) to 9                             any party, whenever the court determines such 10                            award is appropriate.

11                            “(B) COVERED SETTLEMENT.—

12                            “(i) CONSENT DECREES.—The court 13                             shall not award costs of litigation in any 14                             proposed covered settlement that is a con-15                             sent decree.

16                            “(ii) OTHER COVERED SETTLE-
17                             MENTS.—

18                            “(I) IN GENERAL.—For a pro-
19                             posed covered settlement other than a 20                             consent decree, the court shall ensure 21                             that the covered settlement does not 22                             include payment to any plaintiff for 23                             the costs of litigation.

24                            “(II) MOTIONS.—The court shall 25                             not grant any motion, including a mo-

1                                  tion to dismiss, based on the proposed 2                                  covered settlement described in sub-3                                  clause (I) if the covered settlement in-4                                  cludes payment to any plaintiff for the 5                                  costs of litigation.”; and 6                                  (3) by adding at the end the following:

7                                  “(6) APPROVAL OF COVERED SETTLEMENT.—

8                                  “(A) DEFINITION OF SPECIES.—In this 9                                  paragraph, the term ‘species’ means a species 10                                 that is the subject of an action brought under 11                                 paragraph (1)(C).

12                                 “(B) IN GENERAL.—

13                                 “(i) CONSENT DECREES.—The court
14                                 shall not approve a proposed covered set-15                                 tlement that is a consent decree unless 16                                 each State and county in which the Sec-17                                 retary of the Interior believes a species oc-18                                 curs approves the covered settlement.

19                                 “(ii) OTHER COVERED SETTLE-
20                                 MENTS.—

21                                 “(I) IN GENERAL.—For a pro-
22                                 posed covered settlement other than a 23                                 consent decree, the court shall ensure 24                                 that the covered settlement is ap-25                                 proved by each State and county in

1                         which the Secretary of the Interior be-2                         lieves a species occurs.

3                         “(II) MOTIONS.—The court shall 4                         not grant any motion, including a mo-
5                         tion to dismiss, based on the proposed
6                         covered settlement described in sub-
7                         clause (I) unless the covered settle-8                         ment is approved by each State and 9                         county in which the Secretary of the 10                         Interior believes a species occurs.

11                         “(C) NOTICE.—

12                         “(i) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of 13                         the Interior shall provide each State and 14                         county in which the Secretary of the Inter-15                         ior believes a species occurs notice of a 16                         proposed covered settlement.

17                         “(ii) DETERMINATION OF RELEVANT 18                         STATES AND COUNTIES.—The defendant in 19                         a covered settlement shall consult with 20                         each State described in clause (i) to deter-21                         mine each county in which the Secretary of 22                         the Interior believes a species occurs.

23                         “(D) FAILURE TO RESPOND.—The court 24                         may approve a covered settlement or grant a 25                         motion described in subparagraph (B)(ii)(II) if,

1           not later than 45 days after the date on which 2           a State or county is notified under subparagraph 3           (C)—

4                 “(i)(I) a State or county fails to re-5                 spond; and

6                 “(II) of the States or counties that re-7                 spond, each State or county approves the 8                 covered settlement; or

9                 “(ii) all of the States and counties fail 10                to respond.

11                 “(E) PROOF OF APPROVAL.—The defendant 12                in a covered settlement shall prove any 13                State or county approval described in this para-14                graph in a form—

15                 “(i) acceptable to the State or county, 16                 as applicable; and 17                 “(ii) signed by the State or county of-18                 ficial authorized to approve the covered 19                 settlement.”.
