A BILL

To grant the Congressional Gold Medal to the troops who defended Bataan during World War II.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-

2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. FINDINGS.

4       Congress finds the following:

5           (1) Hours after the attacks on Pearl Harbor,

6       Hawaii, Imperial Japanese forces launched an at-

7       tack on the Philippines, cutting off vital lines of

8       communication to members of the Armed Forces of

1       the United States (referred to in this Act as the 2       “Armed Forces”) and Filipino troops in the Far
3       East under the command of General Douglas Mac-
4       Arthur.

5                 (2) On December 8, 1941, the 200th Coast Ar-
6       tillery Regiment, successors to the New Mexico Na-
7       tional Guardsmen who made up part of the famed 8       “Rough Riders” of the Spanish-American War, were 9       the “first to fire”.

10               (3) Despite being cut off from supply lines and 11       reinforcements, members of the Armed Forces and 12       Philippine troops quickly executed a plan to delay
13       the Japanese invasion and defend the Philippines
14       against that invasion.

15               (4) By April 1942, troops from the United 16       States and the Philippines had bravely and staunch-17       ly fought off enemy attacks in Bataan for more than 18       4 months under strenuous conditions that resulted 19       in widespread starvation and disease.

20               (5) By maintaining their position and engaging
21       the enemy for as long as they did, the troops at Ba-
22       taan were able to change the momentum of the war,
23       delaying the Japanese timetable to take control of 24       the Southeast Pacific for needed war materials. Be-
25       cause of the heroic actions of the defenders of Ba-

1 taan, members of the Armed Forces and other Allied
2 forces throughout the Pacific had time to regroup
3 and prepare for the successful liberation of the Pa-
4 cific and the Philippines.

5 (6) On April 9, 1942, Major General Edward
6 King, whose troops suffered from starvation and a 7 lack of supplies, surrendered the soldiers from the 8 United States and the Philippines into enemy hands.

9 (7) Over the next week, troops from the Armed 10 Forces and the Philippines were taken prisoner and 11 forced to march 65 miles without any food, water, 12 or medical care in what came to be known as the 13 “Bataan Death March”.

14 (8) During this forced march, thousands of sol-15 diers died, either from starvation, lack of medical 16 care, sheer exhaustion, or abuse by their captors.

17 (9) Conditions at the prisoner of war camps
18 were appalling, leading to increased disease and mal-
19 nutrition among the prisoners.

20 (10) The prisoners at Camp O'Donnell died at 21 a rate of nearly 400 per day because of the poor
22 conditions of the camp.

23 (11) On June 6, 1942, the prisoners at Camp
24 O'Donnell were transferred to Camp Cabanatuan,
25 north of Camp O'Donnell.

1                         (12) Nearly 26,000 of the 50,000 Filipino pris-
2                         oners of war died at Camp O'Donnell and survivors
3                         were gradually paroled from September through De-4                         cember 1942.

5                         (13) Between September of 1942 and December
6                         of 1944, prisoners of war from the Armed Forces 7                         who had survived the horrific death march were 8                         shipped north for forced labor aboard “hell ships” 9                         and succumbed in great numbers because of the 10                         abysmal conditions. Many of those ships were mis-
11                         takenly targeted by Allied naval forces because the 12                         Japanese military convoys were not properly labeled 13                         as carrying prisoners of war. The sinking of the 14                         Arisan Maru alone claimed nearly 1,800 lives of 15                         members of the Armed Forces.

16                         (14) The prisoners who remained in the camps
17                         suffered from continued mistreatment, malnutrition, 18                         lack of medical care, and horrific conditions until 19                         they were liberated in 1945.

20                         (15) The veterans of Bataan represented the 21                         best of the United States and the Philippines, hailed 22                         from various locales across both countries, and rep-
23                         resented true diversity.

24                         (16) Over the subsequent decades, the veterans 25                         of Bataan formed support groups, were honored in

1 local and State memorials, and told their stories to 2 all people of the United States.

3 (17) The United States Navy has continued to 4 honor the history and stories of the veterans of Ba-
5 taan by naming 2 ships after the battle, including 1
6 ship that is still in service, the USS Bataan (LHD–
7 5), in memory of their valor and honorable resist-
8 ance against Imperial Japanese forces.

9 (18) Many of the survivors of Bataan have died
10 and those who remain continue to tell their stories.

11 (19) The people of the United States and the 12 Philippines are forever indebted to these men for—

13 (A) the courage and tenacity they dem-
14 onstrated during the first 4 months of World
15 War II fighting against enemy soldiers; and

16 (B) the perseverance they demonstrated 17 during 3 years of capture, imprisonment, and 18 atrocious conditions, while maintaining dignity,
19 honor, patriotism, and loyalty.
