

115TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 791

To posthumously award a Congressional gold medal to Muhammad Ali, in recognition of his contributions to the Nation.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FEBRUARY 1, 2017

Mr. CARSON of Indiana introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Financial Services

A BILL

To posthumously award a Congressional gold medal to Muhammad Ali, in recognition of his contributions to the Nation.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. FINDINGS.

4 Congress finds the following:

5 (1) Born Cassius Marcellus Clay, Jr., on Janu-
6 ary 17, 1942, in Louisville, Kentucky, Muhammad
7 Ali was the first child of Cassius, Sr., and Odessa
8 Clay.

9 (2) Muhammad Ali was one of the most cele-
10 brated athletes of the 20th century. He produced

1 some of America's greatest sports memories, from 2 winning a gold medal at the 1960 Summer Olympics
3 to lighting the Olympic torch at the 1996 Summer
4 Olympics.

5 (3) After an impressive amateur career, during 6 which he recorded 131 wins and only 7 losses and 7 won 2 National AAU light heavyweight titles, Mu-8 hammad Ali became the first professional boxer in 9 history to capture the heavyweight title 3 separate 10 times.

11 (4) Muhammad Ali defeated every challenger he 12 faced in the ring. But, on April 28, 1967, he was 13 stripped of his boxing title and barred from com-
14 peting for being a conscientious objector to the war
15 in Vietnam on religious and moral grounds. How-16 ever, following a unanimous United States Supreme 17 Court decision in 1971, Muhammad Ali's consci-
18 enious objector status was confirmed, his boxing li-19 cense was reinstated, and he was cleared of any 20 wrongdoing.

21 (5) As an African-American and a Muslim who 22 lived in an era that continued to question his civil 23 rights, Muhammad Ali battled issues of race and re-
24 ligion, and received recognition as one of the cham-

1 pions of the Civil Rights Movement in the United 2 States.

3 (6) Muhammad Ali was the recipient of many 4 awards for his sporting prowess and his support of 5 racial harmony, including the Dr. Martin Luther 6 King Memorial Award, the Spirit of America Award,
7 the Amnesty International Lifetime Achievement
8 Award, the Arthur Ashe Award for Courage, the Es-
9 sence Living Legend Award, the Rainbow Coalition
10 Lifetime Achievement Award, the XNBA Human 11 Spirit Award, the Presidential Citizens Medal, and 12 the Presidential Medal of Freedom.

13 (7) Muhammad Ali was acknowledged by many 14 organizations for his achievements both inside and 15 outside the boxing ring, including being crowned
16 “Sportsman of the Century” by Sports Illustrated,
17 being named “Athlete of the Century” by GQ maga-
18 zine, being named “Sports Personality of the Cen-19 tury” by the British Broadcasting Corporation, 20 being named “Kentucky Athlete of the Century” by 21 the Kentucky Athletic Hall of Fame, being named 22 “Kentuckian of the Century” by the State of Ken-23 tucky, being named “Louisvillian of the Century” by 24 the Advertising Club of Louisville, being named
25 “Boxer of the Century” by the World Sports Awards

1 of the Century, being recognized by the International
2 Boxing Hall of Fame, and receiving honorary doctorate degrees from Muhlenberg College
3 and Western Kentucky University, as well as an honorary doctorate of humanities at Princeton University's 260th graduation ceremony.

7 (8) Muhammad Ali received the prestigious
8 “Otto Hahn Peace Medal in Gold” from the United 9 Nations Association of Germany for his work with 10 the United Nations and the Civil Rights Movement
11 in the United States.

12 (9) Muhammad Ali was selected by the California Bicentennial Foundation for the U.S. Constitution for personifying the vitality of the Bill of Rights in various high-profile activities.

16 (10) Despite having been diagnosed with Parkinson's Syndrome in the early 1980s, Muhammad Ali dedicated his life to the cause of universal human rights and freedom. His commitment to equal justice and peace touched the lives of hundreds of thousands of people worldwide.

22 (11) President Jimmy Carter asked Muhammad Ali to meet with African leaders in Tanzania, Kenya, Nigeria, Liberia, and Senegal as part of President

1 Carter's diplomatic efforts on behalf of human rights
2 in the 1980s.

3 (12) In 1990, Muhammad Ali traveled to the 4 Middle East to seek the release of American and 5 British hostages that were being held as human 6 shields in the first Gulf War. As a result of his 7 intervention, 15 United States hostages were freed
8 on December 2nd of that year.

9 (13) In 1998, Muhammad Ali was chosen as 10 the "U.N. Messenger of Peace".

11 (14) Several Presidents of the United States
12 recognized Muhammad Ali, including President
13 George W. Bush who, on November 17, 2002, called 14 him "a man of peace" and stated that "across the 15 world, billions of people know Muhammad Ali as a 16 brave, compassionate, and charming man, and the 17 American people are proud to call Muhammad Ali
18 one of our own", President Bill Clinton who stated
19 that Muhammad Ali "captured the world's imagina-
20 tion and its heart. Outside the ring, Muhammad Ali
21 has dedicated his life to working for children, feed-
22 ing the hungry, supporting his faith, and standing 23 up for racial equality. He always fought for a just 24 and more humane world, breaking down barriers
25 here in America and around the world. There is no

1 telling how many tens of millions of people had their 2 hearts swell with pride and their eyes swell with 3 tears in 1996 when Muhammad Ali lit the Olympic 4 torch, because we know, now and forever, he is the 5 greatest”, President Jimmy Carter who cited Mu-6 hammad Ali as “Mr. International Friendship”, and 7 President Barack Obama who, as a Senator, had a 8 framed picture of Muhammad Ali hanging in his of-9 fice, and before announcing his intentions to run for 10 President, Obama visited with Muhammad Ali at the 11 Ali Center in Louisville, Kentucky.

12 (15) Muhammad Ali encouraged humanity
13 through his perseverance and the support of thou-14 sands of people. He helped such organizations as the 15 Chicago-based adoption agency, The Cradle; the 16 Make-A-Wish Foundation; the Special Olympics’ or-17 ganization, Best Buddies; and Herbert E. Birch 18 Services, an organization that runs a school for 19 handicapped children and young adults, in addition 20 to a summer camp for children with AIDS.

21 (16) Muhammad Ali and his wife Lonnie were 22 the founding directors of the Muhammad Ali Par-
23 kinson Center in Phoenix, Arizona, and helped raise 24 over $50,000,000 for Parkinson’s research. The 25 Center’s mission is to provide excellence in treat-

1 ment, research, and education for patients and families affected by Parkinson's disease and other movement disorders, regardless of their ability to pay.

4 (17) Muhammad Ali was an inspiration to countless individuals with Parkinson's disease, including members of the Rock Steady Boxing Foundation in Indianapolis, Indiana, which was founded to give people with Parkinson's disease hope by improving their quality of life using boxing for fitness.

10 (18) Muhammad Ali was one of the founding members of Athletes for Hope, an organization created by a few very successful athletes of exemplary character who have a deep commitment to charitable and community causes.

15 (19) Muhammad Ali also established the Muhammad Ali Center in his hometown of Louisville, Kentucky, which promotes respect, hope, and understanding, and inspires people everywhere to be as great as they can be. A visitor of the Muhammad Ali Center experiences the "hows" of Ali's life: How he found the courage, the dedication, and the discipline to become a world champion; how he found the conviction to stand up for what he believed; and how he turned his passion for excellence in the ring to a passion for peace on the world stage.

(20) Like Muhammad Ali himself, the Muhammad Ali Center focuses on what brings individuals together, not what sets them apart, and is a “global gathering place” to which people can come, both online and in person, to learn, share, and celebrate our commonalities as human beings and to formulate ways of advancing humanity.

8 (21) Muhammad Ali helped to provide more 9 than 22,000,000 aid packets to assist people in 10 need, and until the last years of his life, he traveled, 11 on average, more than 200 days per year for human-12 itarian causes.

(23) On June 3, 2016, Muhammad Ali died at the age of 74.

20 SEC. 2. CONGRESSIONAL GOLD MEDAL.

21 (a) PRESENTATION AUTHORIZED.—The Speaker of 22 the House of Representatives and the President pro tem-
23 pore of the Senate shall make appropriate arrangements
24 for the presentation, on behalf of Congress, of a gold

1 medal of appropriate design, to Muhammad Ali, in rec-
2 ognition of his contributions to the Nation.

3 (b) DESIGN AND STRIKING.—For the purpose of the 4 presentation referred to in subsection (a), the Secretary
5 of the Treasury (hereinafter in this Act referred to as the 6 “Secretary”) shall strike a gold medal with suitable em-7 blents, devices, and inscriptions to be determined by the 8 Secretary.

9 (c) TRANSFER OF MEDAL AFTER PRESENTATION.—
10 Following the presentation of the gold medal in honor of 11 Muhammad Ali under subsection (a), the gold medal shall 12 be given to his wife, Lonnie Ali.

13 SEC. 3. DUPLICATE MEDALS.

14 Under such regulations as the Secretary may pre-15 scribe, the Secretary may strike and sell duplicates in 16 bronze of the gold medal struck pursuant to section 2 at 17 a price sufficient to cover the cost of the bronze medals 18 (including labor, materials, dies, use of machinery, and 19 overhead expenses) and the cost of the gold medal.

20 SEC. 4. NATIONAL MEDALS.

21 The medals struck under this Act are national medals
22 for purposes of chapter 51 of title 31, United States Code.
