

115TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 82

Recognizing the International Day of Peace.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

SEPTEMBER 28, 2017

Mr. LEWIS of Georgia submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Recognizing the International Day of Peace.

Whereas, on November 30, 1981, during the 77th plenary meeting, the United Nations General Assembly adopted a resolution to declare the third Tuesday of September as the International Day of Peace;

Whereas nearly 20 years later, the United Nations General Assembly adopted A/RES/55/282, which officially designated September 21 as a global day to recognize and celebrate international cease-fire and nonviolence;

Whereas, on September 21, all United Nations Member States, organizations, regional and nongovernmental organizations, and individuals are encouraged to celebrate and recognize global peace efforts;

Whereas the United States Institute of Peace coordinates an annual Peace Day Challenge, an international effort to reaffirm peace as an authentic alternative to violence and war;

Whereas, according to the United States Institute of Peace, since 2015 the Peace Day Challenge has reached 104 million people in 148 countries;

Whereas, in 2015, the USIP Global Peacebuilding Center developed an inaugural USIPEACE Teachers program which selected educators to incorporate peacebuilding into curricula and activities with students across the country;

Whereas peace education programs help break the cycle of violence and conflict by developing active communities committed to peace scholarship and instruction;

Whereas the 2017 Global Peace Index found that peacefulness improved in 93 countries, but declined in 68 countries of those studied;

Whereas the 2017 Global Peace Index also noted that for the past 10 years there has been a decrease in the world's peacefulness and that global violence cost $14.3 trillion in 2016;

Whereas these reports and actions underscore the importance of strengthening and supporting domestic and global efforts to study, discuss, teach, and develop techniques and methods to encourage and augment global peace efforts; and

Whereas the theme for the 2017 International Day of Peace is "Together for Peace: Respect, Safety and Dignity for All": Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That Congress—

1 (1) recognizes the importance of celebrating the
2 36th anniversary of the International Day of Peace;
3 and

4 (2) urges all citizens of the United States to re-
5 flect upon the importance of peace, tolerance, cease-
6 fire, and nonviolence.
