

113TH CONGRESS
2^D SESSION

H. CON. RES. 89

Expressing support for designation of October 28, annually, as “Honoring the Nation’s First Responders Day”.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 5, 2014

Mr. MEADOWS submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing support for designation of October 28, annually, as “Honoring the Nation’s First Responders Day”.

Whereas the term first responders includes all fire, police, EMT, and volunteer first responder workers in the United States;

Whereas there are over 25,300,000 first responders in the United States today, working to keep our communities safe;

Whereas first responders, both professional and volunteer, deserve to be recognized for their commitment to safety, defense, and honor; and

Whereas October 28 would be an appropriate day to establish as “Honoring the Nation’s First Responders Day”: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That Congress—

3 (1) supports the designation of “Honoring the 4 Nation’s First Responders Day”;

5 (2) honors and recognizes the contributions of
6 volunteer firefighters, policemen, and other service
7 men and women; and

8 (3) encourages the people of the United States
9 to observe “Honoring the Nation’s First Responders
10 Day” with appropriate ceremonies and activities that
11 promote awareness of the contributions of the Na-
12 tion’s First Responders.
