CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Condemning Palestinian incitement of violence and reaffirming the special bond between Israel and the United States.

Whereas the recent wave of violence in Israel is a direct result of incitement by radical Islamist elements under the false pretext of an impending change in the status quo on the Temple Mount;

Whereas Israeli Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu has repeatedly reiterated that Israel has no intention of changing the status quo on the Temple Mount;

Whereas the intention of Palestinian incitement is to provoke violence and the murder of Jews;

Whereas Palestinian terrorist attacks are part of the Palestinian Authority's strategy of "popular resistance" that was formally adopted by the Palestinian Authority and Fatah at the Sixth Fatah conference in August 2009;

Whereas Palestinian violence is driven by anti-Jewish incitement and delegitimization of Israel's right to exist;

Whereas Israel's Magen David Adom reports that between October 1, 2015, and October 31, 2015, 11 Israelis were killed and 146 wounded;

Whereas between October 1, 2015, and October 31, 2015, 66 terrorist attacks were carried out against Israeli citizens in Israel;

Whereas in the month of October 2015, Palestinian terrorist attacks have occurred in Jerusalem, Kiryat Gat, Afula, Tel Aviv, Gan Shmuel, Ra'Anana, and the West Bank, and include—

(1) an attack on October 31, 2015, when a 17-year-old Palestinian terrorist attempted to stab Israel Defense Forces soldiers near the Gilboa crossing;

(2) an attack on October 30, 2015, when 2 Palestinian terrorists attempted to stab Israeli border police officers near the Tapuach Junction;

(3) an attack on October 30, 2015, when an Israeli was stabbed by a Palestinian terrorist near the French Hill light rail station in Jerusalem;

(4) an attack on October 29, 2015, when a Palestinian terrorist stabbed an Israel Defense Forces soldier near the Tomb of the Patriarchs in Hebron;

(5) an attack on October 29, 2015, when a Palestinian terrorist attempted to stab an Israel Defense Forces soldier in the neighborhood of Beit Hadassah;

(6) an attack on October 29, 2015, when shots were fired from a passing vehicle towards a bus stop near Jerusalem;

(7) an attack on October 28, 2015, when an Israeli woman was stabbed by a Palestinian terrorist outside of the Rami Levy supermarket near Gush Etzion;

(8) an attack on October 28, 2015, when a Palestinian terrorist attempted to stab an Israel Defense Forces soldier near the Tomb of the Patriarchs in Hebron;

(9) an attack on October 27, 2015, when 2 Palestinian terrorists stabbed an Israel Defense Forces soldier near Gush Etzion;

(10) an attempted attack on October 27, 2015, when 2 Palestinian terrorists aged 17 and 16 were apprehended with a knife and an axe in Jerusalem;

(11) an attack on October 26, 2015, when an Israel Defense Forces soldier was stabbed by 2 Palestinian terrorists near Gush Etzion;

(12) an attack on October 26, 2015, when an Israel Defense Forces soldier was stabbed and seriously wounded near Hebron;

(13) an attack on October 26, 2015, when a Palestinian assailant attempted to stab an Israel Defense Forces soldier outside of the Tomb of the Patriarchs in Hebron;

(14) an attack on October 25, 2015, when an Israeli man was wounded in a stabbing attack after his car was stoned by Palestinian assailants near Metzad;

(66) an attack on October 1, 2015, when 2 Israelis traveling with their four children were killed in a drive-by shooting near Nabulus;

Whereas the Government of Israel meets acts of Jewish Israeli terrorism with a firm action and clear condemnation;

Whereas the Palestinian Government praises Palestinian terrorists as heroes to be commended and emulated;

Whereas the policy of the Government of Israel to keep holy sites of all religions open for all to peacefully worship;

Whereas Palestinian Authority President Mahmoud Abbas said on July 30, 2013, that “In a final resolution, [the Palestinian Authority] would not see the presence of a single Israeli” in the state of Palestine;

Whereas Palestinian Authority President Mahmoud Abbas stated on a September 16, 2015, television broadcast that “We welcome every drop of blood spilled in Jerusalem. This is pure blood, clean blood, blood on its way to Allah. With the help of Allah, every martyr will be in heaven, and every wounded will get his reward”;

Whereas the Palestinian Authority-appointed Grand Mufti of Jerusalem, Sheikh Muhammad Ahmad Hussein, attempted to discredit and eliminate Israeli claims to the Temple Mount by erroneously stating on an October 25, 2015, television broadcast that “the Al-Aqsa Mosque was an Islamic mosque since the world was created . . . it was never anything other than a mosque”;

Whereas, on October 14, 2015, Palestinian Authority President Mahmoud Abbas falsely accused the Government of Israel of executing a Palestinian boy, who is alive and recovering in an Israeli hospital after he stabbed an innocent Israeli citizen and was hit by an automobile, thus continuing to incite violence against innocent Israelis;

Whereas, on September 30, 2015, Palestinian Authority President Mahmoud Abbas said during a speech to the United Nations that the Palestinian Authority is no longer bound to the 1995 Oslo Accords which established the 2-state solution for peace;

Whereas in June 2013, Palestinian Authority President Mahmoud Abbas referenced Israeli acts which “indicate an evil and dangerous plot to destroy Al-Aqsa and build the alleged temple”;

Whereas this month, a Palestinian family chose to name their newborn baby “Knife of Jerusalem” in order to show solidarity with young Palestinians involved in terrorist attacks against Israelis;

Whereas in a November 2014 address commemorating the 10th anniversary of Yasser Arafat’s death, President Abbas said that as Israel has no claim to Jerusalem, he will not allow the Temple Mount to be “contaminated by Jews”, and threatened that Jewish prayer at the site would cause a “devastating religious war”;

Whereas Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu stated on October 19, 2015, following an attack by Israeli civilians on a wrongfully suspected terrorist that Israel is “a country of law” and that “no one will take the law into his own hands”;

Whereas Israelis and Palestinians alike have the right to live in safety and dignity;

Whereas Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu alternatively stated during an October 1, 2015, speech to the United Nations General Assembly that “I am prepared to immediately resume direct peace negotiations with the Palestinian Authority without any preconditions whatsoever”; and

Whereas Palestinian Authority President Mahmoud Abbas has not responded in kind: Now, therefore, be it

1       Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That it is the sense of Congress that the
3 United States—

4           (1) condemns each and every one of these acts
5 of violence against Israeli citizens in the strongest of 6 terms;

7           (2) believes that any chance at lasting peace
8 can only happen through peaceful, bilateral, discus-
9 sions and sound consultation with peaceful allies, not
10 calls for bloodshed;

11           (3) expresses support for individuals and orga-
12 nizations working to encourage cooperation between
13 Israelis and Palestinians and the many activists
14 within Israel and Palestine working to bring an end
15 to the conflict;

16           (4) calls on Palestinian Authority President
17 Mahmoud Abbas and the international community to
18 join us in condemning the current wave of terrorism
19 in Israel; and

20           (5) reaffirms the friendship between Israel and 21 the United States.
