

111TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. RES. 1130

Expressing support for the people affected by the natural disasters on Madeira Island.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 2, 2010

Mr. FRANK of Massachusetts (for himself, Mr. MCGOVERN, Mr. TIERNEY, Mr. OLVER, Mr. COSTA, Mr. LANGEVIN, Mr. CARDOZA, Mr. LYNCH, and Mr. NUNES) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

RESOLUTION

Expressing support for the people affected by the natural disasters on Madeira Island.

Whereas, on February 20, 2010, a powerful storm hit Madeira Island, the largest of the islands that comprise the Madeira Autonomous Region of Portugal, resulting in a series of devastating flash floods and mudslides;

Whereas the storm caused boulders, trees, and earth to be hurled against buildings, carried away vehicles, and washed away roads and bridges on the south side of Madeira Island, an area that includes Funchal, the capital of the Madeira Autonomous Region;

Whereas 42 people have lost their lives, 151 people have received treatment for injuries at the main hospital in Funchal, and hundreds of people have been displaced;

Whereas the storm destroyed a large portion of the water and communication infrastructure on Madeira Island;

Whereas José Sócrates, the Prime Minister of Portugal, has promised “all necessary aid” to Madeira, and Alberto João Gonçalves Jardim, the President of the Madeira Autonomous Region, has consulted with European Commission President José Manuel Barroso to seek further assistance;

Whereas a Portuguese Navy frigate has dispatched troops to Madeira Island, with Portuguese divers and a medical team also arriving to offer emergency assistance;

Whereas the Government of Portugal has announced 3 days of national mourning for those who lost their lives in this disaster;

Whereas the United States is providing assistance through the Office of Foreign Disaster Assistance of the United States Agency for International Development;

Whereas there are approximately 400 citizens of the United States on Madeira Island, with United States officials continually working to ensure their safety and well-being; and

Whereas a community of approximately 1,500,000 Portuguese-Americans, strongly represented in Rhode Island, Massachusetts, California, and other States maintain deep and enduring ties with Portugal and Madeira Island: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

1 (1) mourns the loss of life and expresses its
2 deepest condolences to the families of those killed
3 and injured by floods and mudslides resulting from
4 the storm that hit Madeira Island on February 20,
5 2010;

6 (2) expresses solidarity between the people of 7 the United States and Madeira, recognizing the his-
8 torical ties between Portuguese-Americans, Portugal,
9 and the Madeira Autonomous Region; and

10 (3) applauds the courageous rescue efforts of
11 fire, medical, and military personnel and other vol-
12 unteers in response to the flooding and mudslides.
