

116TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. RES. 1264

Recognizing that the land that is now known as the United States of America was originally inhabited by Indigenous peoples known as Native Americans, Native Hawaiians, and Alaska Natives.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

DECEMBER 15, 2020

Ms. NORTON submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Natural Resources

---

RESOLUTION

Recognizing that the land that is now known as the United States of America was originally inhabited by Indigenous peoples known as Native Americans, Native Hawaiians, and Alaska Natives.

Whereas a land acknowledgment is a formal statement that recognizes and respects Indigenous peoples as the original and traditional stewards of a given geographic area and the enduring relationship that exists between Indigenous peoples and their ancestral lands;

Whereas a formal statement of a land acknowledgment is a proper method to recognize the traditions of Indigenous peoples and ancestral land;

Whereas a land acknowledgment is a practice that honors and respects contemporary Indigenous peoples' connection to their ancestral lands;

Whereas a land acknowledgment is an expression of gratitude and appreciation to Tribes who first resided in this country;

Whereas a land acknowledgment serves as a reminder and a reflection on the impacts of colonialism, past and present;

Whereas a land acknowledgment recognizes Indigenous peoples' voices that have been devalued in past contexts;

Whereas a land acknowledgment is a way to show both gratitude and appreciation for those who were first on the land and encourages a broadening of awareness of Indigenous peoples; and

Whereas it is encouraged that formal land acknowledgments be performed at introductions of public and ceremonial events: Now, therefore, be it

1        Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2            (1) honors the legacy of Indigenous peoples who
3            inhabited the land before the establishment of the
4            United States of America and continue to live in re-
5            lationship with their ancestral homelands today, and
6            recognizes their significance and ongoing contribu-
7            tions to the United States; and

8            (2) calls on State and local governments to en-
9            courage formal land acknowledgments, whether
10          verbal or written, before public or ceremonial events.

○