

113TH CONGRESS
2^D SESSION

H. RES. 495

Encouraging people in the United States to recognize March 3, 2014, as Read Across America Day.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FEBRUARY 28, 2014

Mr. RODNEY DAVIS of Illinois (for himself and Mrs. DAVIS of California) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Education and the Workforce

RESOLUTION

Encouraging people in the United States to recognize March
3, 2014, as Read Across America Day.

Whereas reading is a basic requirement for quality education and professional success, and is a source of pleasure throughout life;

Whereas the people of the United States must be able to read if the United States is to remain competitive in the global economy;

Whereas Congress has placed great emphasis on reading intervention and providing additional resources for reading assistance, including through the programs authorized by the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 6301 et seq.) and through annual appropriations for library and literacy programs; and

Whereas more than 50 national organizations concerned about reading and education have joined with the National Education Association (NEA) to use March 3 to celebrate reading and the birth of Theodor Geisel, also known as Dr. Seuss: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—
