

115TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 633

Supporting the designation of “#GivingTuesday” and supporting strong incentives for all people of the United States to give generously.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

NOVEMBER 28, 2017

Ms. GABBARD (for herself, Mr. HURD, and Ms. SINEMA) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

RESOLUTION

Supporting the designation of “#GivingTuesday” and supporting strong incentives for all people of the United States to give generously.

Whereas the Tuesday following Thanksgiving, Black Friday, and Cyber Monday kicks off the holiday-giving season with a global day dedicated to charitable giving known as #GivingTuesday;

Whereas #GivingTuesday is in its sixth year and has become a worldwide movement that celebrates the power of giving in all its forms;

Whereas #GivingTuesday brought together more than 2,500 organizations in all 50 States in its first year and continues to gain momentum with more than 45,000 partners in the United States and around the world, increasing online donations 470 percent since the Tuesday after Thanksgiving in 2011 (before #GivingTuesday began);

Whereas #GivingTuesday, along with other community-giving days, highlights the charitable community in America which boasts one-and-a-half million nonprofits, philanthropic organizations, and religious congregations dedicated to improving lives and strengthening communities;

Whereas nonprofit organizations are key partners with Federal, State, and local governments in the delivery of key programs and services, including child learning and nutrition, emergency disaster response, victims' services, and job training and placement programs;

Whereas communities are lifted up by the exposure of all citizens to the cultural, educational, and civic opportunities provided by nonprofit organizations;

Whereas United States volunteerism and generosity toward the common good led to over 60 percent of Americans, including 84 percent of millennials, making financial contributions to support the work of nonprofit organizations;

Whereas virtually every person in the United States benefits from the work of the charitable community, which employs over 13,700,000 workers, or 10 percent, of the United States workforce, and engages an additional 63,000,000 volunteers;

Whereas the charitable sector plays a vital economic role contributing $887,300,000,000 to the United States economy, including providing nearly $588,000,000 in annual wages and benefits;

Whereas the United States is a great country with a strong philanthropic tradition that should be continued and carried on; and

Whereas giving back is something all political parties can agree on, transcending any differences of ideology and uniting people across boundaries: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) recognizes that the United States needs a
3 strong and vibrant charitable and philanthropic sec-
4 tor to enable communities to meet local needs;

5 (2) supports the designation of
6 #GivingTuesday as a way to encourage charitable
7 giving and therefore enact positive change and pro-
8 mote causes that further progress and prosperity for 9 a better world; and

10 (3) supports strong incentives for all Americans
11 to give generously to charitable organizations by pro-
12 tecting the charitable deduction and incentives that
13 encourage philanthropy and volunteering.

○