A BILL

To amend the Tibetan Policy Act of 2002 to modify certain provisions of that Act.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Promoting a Resolu- 5 tion to the Tibet-China Conflict Act”.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress finds the following:

3 (1) It has been the long-standing policy of the 4 United States to encourage meaningful and direct 5 dialogue between People's Republic of China au-
6 thorities and the Dalai Lama or his representatives, 7 without preconditions, to seek a settlement that re-8 solves differences.

9 (2) Ten rounds of dialogue held between 2002
10 and 2010 between the People's Republic of China
11 authorities and the 14th Dalai Lama's representa-
12 tives failed to produce a settlement that resolved dif-
13 ferences, and the two sides have not met since Janu-
14 ary 2010.

15 (3) An obstacle to further dialogue is that the 16 Government of the People's Republic of China con-17 tinues to impose conditions on His Holiness the 18 Dalai Lama for a resumption of dialogue, including 19 a demand that he say that Tibet has been part of 20 China since ancient times, which the Dalai Lama 21 has refused to do because it is false.

22 (4) United States Government statements that 23 the United States considers Tibet a part of the Peo-24 ple's Republic of China have reflected the reality on 25 the ground that the Government of the People's Re-

1 public of China has exerted effective control over 2 Tibet.

3 (5) The United States Government has never 4 taken the position that Tibet was a part of China 5 since ancient times or that the means by which the 6 Government of the People's Republic of China came 7 to exert effective control over Tibet was consistent 8 with international law or included the free or mean-9 ingful consent of the Tibetan people.

10 (6) United States Government documents dated 11 January 9, 1919, June 1, 1944, June 17, 1949, 12 April 4, 1951, December 3, 1951, March 23, 1961,
13 and February 14, 1963, listed Tibet as an entity
14 separate and distinct from China.

15 (7) Article 1 of the International Covenant on 16 Civil and Political Rights and Article 1 the Inter-17 national Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural 18 Rights provide that "All peoples have the right of 19 self-determination. By virtue of that right they freely 20 determine their political status and freely pursue 21 their economic, social and cultural development.".

22 (8) Under international law, including United 23 Nations General Assembly Resolution 2625, the 24 right to self-determination is the right of a people to 25 determine its own destiny and the exercise of this

1 right can result in a variety of outcomes ranging 2 from independence, federation, protection, some 3 form of autonomy or full integration within a State.

4 (9) United Nations General Assembly Resolu-
5 tion 1723, adopted on December 20, 1961, called for 6 the “cessation of practices which deprive the Tibetan 7 people of their fundamental human rights and free-8 doms, including their right to self-determination.”.

9 (10) In a December 30, 1950, note to the Gov-
10 ernments of the United Kingdom and India, the De-11 partment of State wrote that “The United States, 12 which was one of the early supporters of the prin-13 ciple of self-determination of peoples, believes that 14 the Tibetan people has the same inherent right as 15 any other to have the determining voice in its polit-
16 ical destiny. It is believed further that, should devel-17 opments warrant, consideration could be given to 18 recognition of Tibet as an independent State.”.

19 (11) In a June 2, 1951, telegram to the United 20 States Embassy in New Delhi, the State Depart-21 ment wrote that Tibet should not “be compelled by 22 duress [to] accept [the] violation [of] its autonomy” 23 and that the Tibetan people should “enjoy certain 24 rights [of] self-determination, commensurate with

1 [the] autonomy Tibet has maintained since [the]
2 Chinese revolution.”

3 (12) Secretary of State Antony Blinken, in a 4 May 26, 2022, speech entitled “The Administra-
5 tion’s Approach to the People’s Republic of China,” 6 said that the rules-based international order’s 7 “founding documents include the UN Charter and 8 the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which 9 enshrined concepts like self-determination, sov-10 ereignty, the peaceful settlement of disputes. These 11 are not Western constructs. They are reflections of 12 the world’s shared aspirations.”.

13 (13) The Tibetan Policy Act of 2002 (22 14 U.S.C. 6901 note), in directing the United States 15 Government “to promote the human rights and dis-16 tinct religious, cultural, linguistic, and historical 17 identity of the Tibetan people” acknowledges that 18 the Tibetan people possess a distinct religious, cul-19 tural, linguistic, and historical identity.

20 (14) Department of State reports on human 21 rights and religious freedom have consistently docu-
22 mented repression by the People’s Republic of China
23 authorities against Tibetans as well as acts of defi-24 ance and resistance by Tibetan people against the 25 People’s Republic of China policies.

1 (15) Section 355 of the Foreign Relations Au-
2 thorization Act, Fiscal Years 1992 and 1993 (Public 3 Law 102-138; 105 Stat. 713) stated that it is the 4 sense of Congress that—

5 (A) “Tibet, including those areas incor-
6 porated into the Chinese provinces of Sichuan,
7 Yunnan, Gansu, and Qinghai, is an occupied 8 country under the established principles of 9 international law”;

10 (B) “Tibet’s true representatives are the 11 Dalai Lama and the Tibetan Government in 12 exile as recognized by the Tibetan people”;

13 (C) “Tibet has maintained throughout its 14 history a distinctive and sovereign national, cul-15 tural, and religious identity separate from that 16 of China and, except during periods of illegal 17 Chinese occupation, has maintained a separate 18 and sovereign political and territorial identity”;

19 (D) “historical evidence of this separate 20 identity may be found in Chinese archival docu-21 ments and traditional dynastic histories, in 22 United States recognition of Tibetan neutrality
23 during World War II, and in the fact that a 24 number of countries including the United 25 States, Mongolia, Bhutan, Sikkim, Nepal,

1 India, Japan, Great Britain, and Russia recognized Tibet as an independent nation or dealt 2 with Tibet independently of any Chinese government”;

5 (E) “~~1949–1950~~, China launched an 6 armed invasion of Tibet in contravention of 7 international law”;

8 (F) “it is the policy of the United States 9 to oppose aggression and other illegal uses of 10 force by one country against the sovereignty of 11 another as a manner of acquiring territory, and 12 to condemn violations of international law, in-13 cluding the illegal occupation of one country by 14 another”; and

15 (G) “numerous United States declarations
16 since the Chinese invasion have recognized Ti-17 bet’s right to self-determination and the ille-18 gality of China’s occupation of Tibet.”.

19 (16) The joint explanatory statement to accom-
20 pany division K of the Consolidated Appropriations
21 Act for Fiscal Year 2023 (Public Law 117–328)
22 states that “Funds appropriated by the Act shall not 23 be used to produce or disseminate documents, maps, 24 or other materials that recognize or identify Tibet, 25 including the Tibet Autonomous Region and other

1 Tibetan autonomous counties and prefectures, as 2 part of the PRC until the Secretary of State reports 3 to the appropriate congressional committees that the 4 Government of the PRC has reached a final nego-5 tiated agreement on Tibet with the Dalai Lama or 6 his representatives or with democratically elected 7 leaders of the Tibetan people.”.

8 SEC. 3. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

9 It is the policy of the United States that—

10 (1) the Tibetan people are a people entitled to 11 the right of self-determination under international 12 law, including the International Covenant on Civil 13 and Political Rights and the International Covenant
14 on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and that 15 their ability to exercise this right is precluded by the 16 current policies of the People’s Republic of China; 17 and

18 (2) the conflict between Tibet and the People’s 19 Republic of China is unresolved; and that the legal 20 status of Tibet remains to be determined in accord-21 ance with international law.

22 SEC. 4. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

23 It is the sense of Congress that—

24 (1) claims made by officials of the People’s Re-
25 public of China and the Chinese Communist Party

1 that Tibet has been a part of China since ancient 2 times are historically false;

3 (2) the Government of the People's Republic of 4 China has failed to meet the expectations of the 5 United States to engage in meaningful dialogue with 6 the Dalai Lama or his representatives toward a 7 peaceful settlement of the unresolved conflict be-8 tween Tibet and the People's Republic of China; and

9 (3) United States public diplomacy efforts 10 should counter disinformation about Tibet from the 11 Government of the People's Republic of China and 12 the Chinese Communist Party, including 13 disinformation about the history of Tibet, the Ti-14 betan people, and Tibetan institutions including that 15 of the Dalai Lama.

16 SEC. 5. MODIFICATIONS TO THE TIBETAN POLICY ACT OF 17 2002.

18 (a) TIBET NEGOTIATIONS.—Section 613(b) of the 19 Tibetan Policy Act of 2002 (22 U.S.C. 6901 note) is 20 amended—

21 (1) in paragraph (2), by striking “and” at the 22 end;

23 (2) in paragraph (3), by striking the period at 24 the end and inserting “; and”; and 25 (3) by adding at the end the following:

1 “(4) efforts to counter disinformation about
2 Tibet from the Government of the People’s Republic
3 of China and the Chinese Communist Party, includ-4 ing disinformation about the history of Tibet, the 5 Tibetan people, and Tibetan institutions including 6 that of the Dalai Lama.”.

7 (b) UNITED STATES SPECIAL COORDINATOR FOR Ti-
8 BETAN ISSUES.—Section 621(d) of the Tibetan Policy Act
9 of 2002 (22 U.S.C. 6901 note) is amended—

10 (1) by redesignating paragraphs (6), (7), and 11 (8) as paragraphs (7), (8), and (9), respectively; and 12 (2) by inserting after paragraph (5) the fol-13 lowing:

14 “(6) work to ensure that United States Govern-15 ment statements and documents counter, as appro-
16 priate, disinformation about Tibet from the Govern-
17 ment of the People’s Republic of China and the Chi-
18 nese Communist Party, including disinformation 19 about the history of Tibet, the Tibetan people, and 20 Tibetan institutions including that of the Dalai 21 Lama;”.

22 (e) GEOGRAPHIC DEFINITION OF TIBET.—The Ti-
23 betan Policy Act of 2002 (22 U.S.C. 6901 note) is amend-24 ed by adding at the end the following:

1 "SEC. 622. GEOGRAPHIC DEFINITION OF TIBET.

2 “In this Act and in implementing policies relating to 3 the Tibetan people under other provisions of law, the term
4 ‘Tibet’, unless otherwise specified, means—

5 “(1) the Tibet Autonomous Region; and

“(2) the Tibetan areas of Qinghai, Sichuan, Gansu, and Yunnan provinces.”.

8 SEC. 6. AVAILABILITY OF AMOUNTS TO COUNTER
9 DISINFORMATION ABOUT TIBET.

10 Amounts authorized to be appropriated or otherwise
